Jack Zane Dedication

The Maryland basketball staff dedicates its 2000-01 media guide to the devoted service and longtime commitment of Jack Zane, Executive Director of the Walk of Fame and History, of Maryland's new Comcast Center.

Zane, whose tenure as student and staffer at Maryland began in the mid-1950s, has filled numerous roles within the Terrapin athletic department and has touched many lives during his 46 years of dedication. Most notable in Zane's career has been his over-30 years in the Maryland sports information office. He is an active historian and walking archivist for the university's athletic department, thus proving a perfect fit to oversee administrative efforts with the new arena's walk of fame, to be unveiled in 2002-03.

His years as sports information director were marked by friendly service to staff, coaches, athletes and media, alike. He is still an active member of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) and was inducted into the organization's Hall of Fame after serving as its president in 1986. He received CoSIDA's Lifetime Achievement Award at its 2000 summer convention in St. Louis.

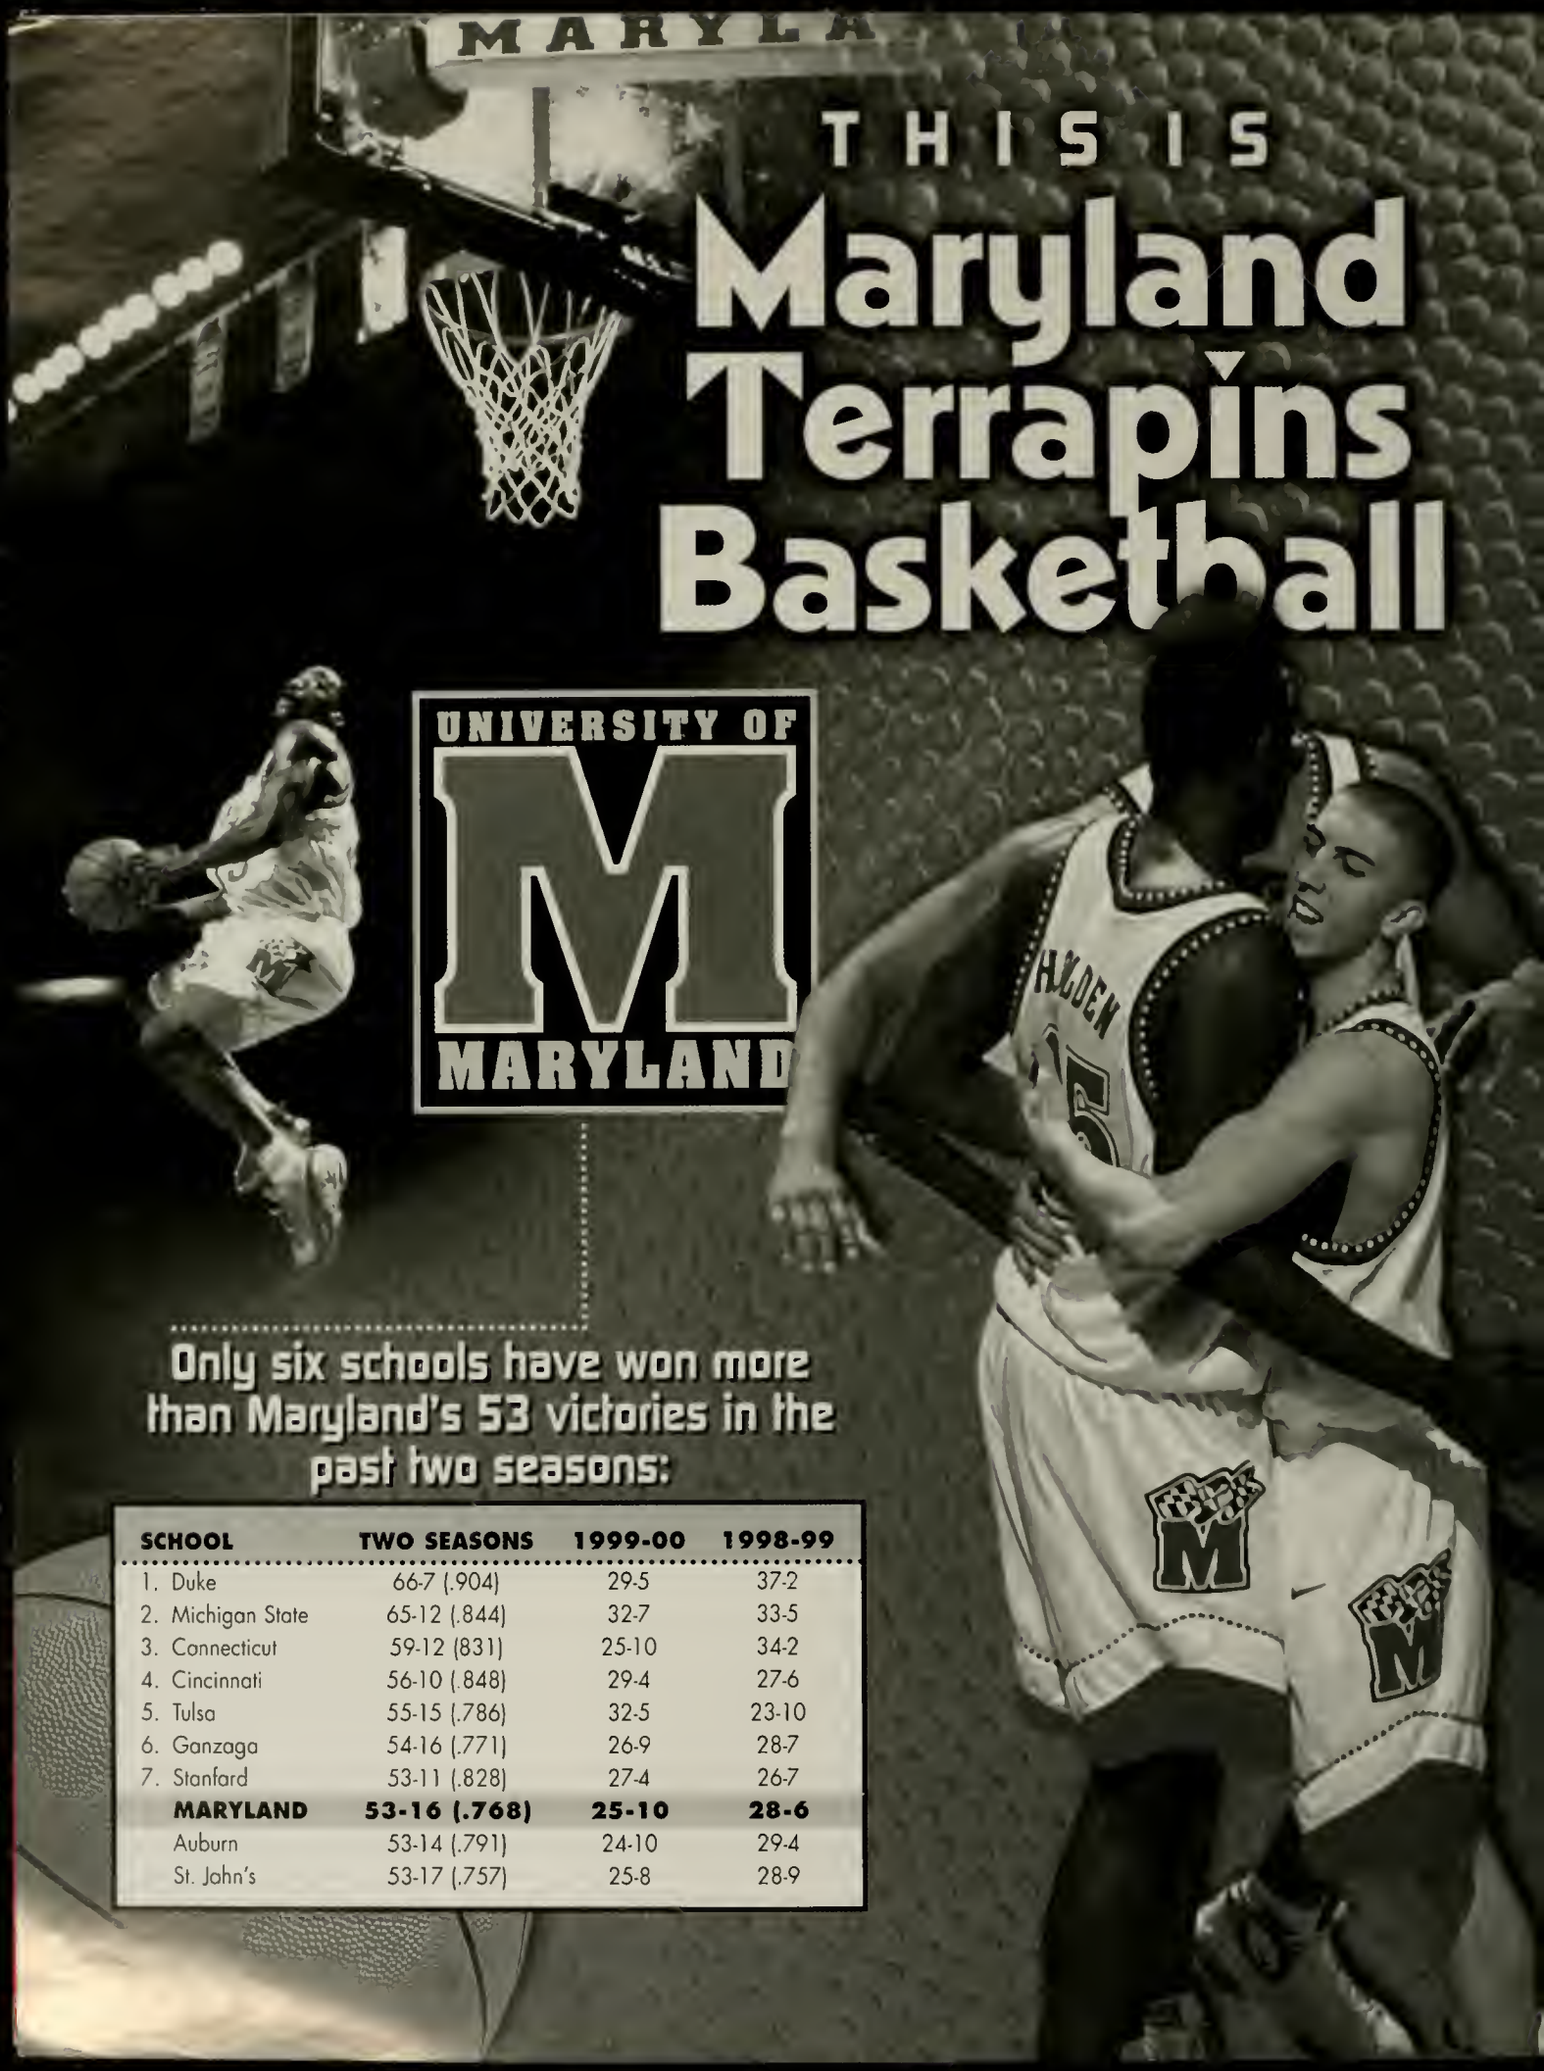
Zane was the assistant sports information director at Maryland from 1960-62, and the SID from 1969-86. During that time he helped publicize numerous All-America athletes including Randy White, Boomer Esiason, Buck Williams, Tom McMillen, Len Elmore and Tom Brown. He worked directly with 11 Terrapin football bowl teams and seven men's basketball teams that participated in the NCAA Tournament. Zane was alsa the sports information director for the 1975 Terrapin men's lacrosse team that won the NCAA championship.

Zane was promated to assistant athletic director in 1981. He began his career in sports informatian as a Maryland student under the legendary joe f. blair in 1958. Upan his graduation in 1960 he was named as the first full-time assistant SID in school history. He was the SID at George Washington University from 1963-69.

He was the first executive sports editor of the Diamondback, the school newspaper, and was a member of the Sigma Delta Chi journalism fraternity as an undergraduate student. He graduated from Maryland in 1960 with a bachelor's degree in journalism.

Zane, who has been a member of CoSIDA since 1960, was a member of the NCAA public relations committee for six years and was also a six-year member of the NCAA public relatians/promotions committee. He was inducted inta the University of Maryland Athletic Hall of Fame in 1986.

He has served the department of athletics at Maryland as director af ticket operations since 1986 and began his new assignment this past July.



Only six schools have won more than Maryland's 53 victories in the past two seasons:

The ACC has been the top rated conference in three of the post five years according to the RPI Rating. After ranking first for three consecutive seasons (1996-98) the ACC ranked second in 1999 and third in 2000. Entering the 2000-01 season, the ACC has been unanimously ranked in all preseason publications as the country's most competitive conference for the upcoming season.

ACC NO. 1 IN THE ASSOCIATED PRESS POLL
There have been 797 Associated Press polls since the first on Jan. 20, 1949. The ACC, despite annually having the smallest membership total, is the most ranked conference in the nation with 2,275 listings.

ACC WITH SEVEN TEAMS IN THE ASSOCIATED PRESS POLL
The ACC became the first conference in history to have seven teams in the Associated Press poll during two consecutive weeks during the 1997-98 season. Maryland, North Carolina, Duke, Florida State, Clemson, Wake Forest and Georgia Tech were each ranked in the AP polls of Dec. 1 and 8. The ACC also had five teams ranked for five weeks and four for eight weeks. As many as five or six teams are expected to be ranked in the AP poll again in 2000-01.

- The ACC has had a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament a record 18 times.

ACC TELEVISION

Beginning in 2001-02, the ACC will be featured in a Sunday evening national game of the week to be televised on FOX Sports Net. Finalized and announced in the summer of 2000, the package establishes the ACC as the first conference with a national television arrangement on more than one national cable network.

In 1998-99, the ACC became the first conference in collegiate basketball history to have its entire conference-game package televised either regionally or nationally.

Twenty-two appearances on ABC and CBS are among the 101 national network appearances that highlight the 2000-01 Atlantic Coast Conference schedule. The schedule boasts 219 total appearances over a record 143 televised games, and marks the sixth consecutive season that the ACC will have over 200 television appearances. Included are 60 appearances on ESPN, 18 on ESPN2, 12 on ABC, 10 on CBS and one on FOX Sports Net.

A remarkable total of 67 out of 72 regular season ACC league games will receive regional or national television coverage in 2000-01. Over one-third of the league's conference schedule, 28 games, will be televised on national television networks.

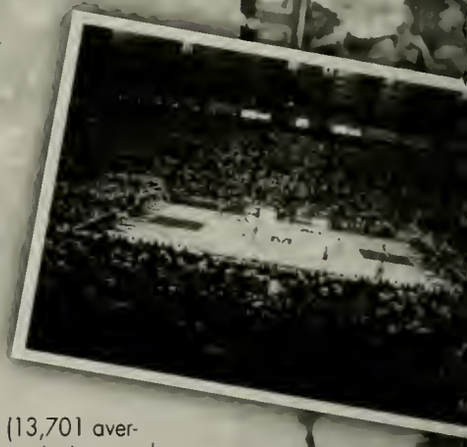
Terps Rank Among Nation's Leaders in Men's Basketball Attendance

The University of Maryland men's basketball team has ranked in the Top 20 among national attendance leaders for three straight seasons. After averaging 13,377 fans and ranking 20th in the country in 1998, the Terps set a school record with a 14,474 average in 1999 while ranking 15th nationally. Last year, Maryland continued to draw capacity numbers at Cole Field House, averaging 14,148 fans and ranking 17th.

In 1998-99, the Terps' average attendance established a school-record for the second consecutive season and marked only the third time in school history that the program had averaged more than 14,000 fans in a single season. The 2000 Terps eclipsed the 14,000 plateau for a fourth season.

Last season, the Terps also set a school record and ranked 10th nationally by playing in front of 503,648 fans overall. That figure was up from a No. 12 ranking when the Terps played before a previous school-record 473,626 fans in 1998-99. Maryland has played before at least 400,000 fans in three consecutive seasons.



Maryland's school-record home attendance average in 1999 included 14 sellouts (all but one regular season game) and 15 games with crowds over 13,500. Maryland played to 99.8 percent capacity for the entire season in the 14,500 seat Cole Field House.

Maryland has averaged more than 13,000 fans for every home game in each of the last six seasons. The Terps have appeared in a school-record seven consecutive NCAA Tournaments.

During the last seven seasons, the Terps have achieved six of the top seven single-season home attendance averages in school history. Nearly 1,400,000 people have come to Cole Field House in the last seven seasons (13,701 average in 101 games) as the Terps have forged the longest non-conference home winning streak in the nation (71 games). The Terps have an 88-13 record (87.1 winning percentage) in the last seven seasons at home and were a perfect 16-0 in Cole during the 1994-95 season.

Maryland has averaged more than 12,000 fans during each of the first 11 years of the Gary Williams Era. Since the beginning of the 1990 season, more than 1.5 million people have come to Cole to see the Terps win at a 78.4 percent clip. During Williams' tenure, the Terps have won at least 10 home games 10 times in 11 seasons, and averaged more than 12 wins a season at home.

Maryland Basketball TRAVEL

The Maryland basketball team flies charter airplanes to nearly every game on its schedule. Pictured above is a 50-passenger aircraft which transports the Terps from city to city throughout the season. This regional jet features two-by-two seating with no middle seats, and is the quietest flying jet in the world. It can cruise at 530 mph and up to 41,000 feet.

Charter flights make getting to, and coming back from, any destination easy and comfortable. This type of travel allows the Terps to be on campus and in class as much as possible, and overnight stays are minimized. The convenience and comfort of charter airplane travel allows for convenient, efficient, frequent service as well as maximized practice and study time.

2000-01 Season Outlook

ACC: Always Competitive Conference. Some might substitute "challenging" in place of "competitive." And this season, "astoundingly" might be appropriate in place of "always." Regardless, among college basketball leagues nationwide the Atlantic Coast Conference is annually regarded among the elite.

ACC: Additional Crowns to Conquer. The task ahead of Gary Williams and the University of Maryland men's basketball program is daunting – win a conference championship, achieve a record eighth consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament, and continue pursuit of everyone's ultimate prize: a national championship.

For Maryland basketball, what has become commonplace during the Gary Williams Era will remain the standard in 2000-01: intense play, a breakneck pace spurred by aggressive defense, overflow crowds and a night-in, night-out battle to remain among the upper echelon of the Atlantic Coast Conference.

What has changed, however, if even just slightly, are expectations. And those expectations are natural, of course, when five starters, three All-America candidates and 10 letterwinners return from a 25-win team that finished second in the rugged ACC for a second straight season. It is those expectations that may present the single largest thorn in the side for the Terps as they enter play in the 2000-01 season.

Commented Williams, "I like the expectations. I think you have to be proud that people think your team's going to be a good basketball team. "

The Terps are good, and are deserving of preseason rankings among the nation's top five teams. Though it was only a year ago that after losing three key starters to the NBA, and with a freshman point guard among three new starters, expectations were not high. Barely top 25, in fact. That is, until Williams molded a little Maryland magic last year while blending freshman guard Steve Blake, first-year sophomore starters Juan Dixon and Lonny Baxter and returning All-America forward Terence Morris to create a formidable quartet that led the Terps to their fourth consecutive 20-win season.

And so, as Williams prepares and strategizes for this season, three key concerns prevail:

First and probably foremost is the returning strength throughout the ACC. Not just Maryland, but as many as six schools return virtually their entire starting lineups. How to compete in a league with three schools ranked in one preseason poll among the top five teams in the country, and three others already inside or banging on the door to the top 20? That is a valid question as Maryland, Duke, North Carolina, Wake Forest, NC State and Virginia all enter the year with visions of ACC prominence. That's six of nine schools. Prominence doesn't extend that deep.

"Within the league," said Williams, "I would think there will be five teams at least that will be ranked among the top 25. We can't get cocky just because preseason expectations will be high. Within our league, alone, it's very difficult to assume anything about how good we are. It's going to be a very tough year in terms of the number of tough teams that we compete against."

A second key is how to retain the workmanlike approach that earned last year's "rebuilding" effort the accolades as one of the nation's most-feared teams. In other words, in coach-speak, "let's try to remember what got us here. Let's put aside all those press clippings and get back to work."

Adds Williams, "I think when people see our team, they see everyone back and assume we'll just pick up from where we won 25 games last year. But the thing I've found out in coaching is that each year your team is different, you have a couple of new guys to add to the team, and so it takes the same effort every year to make yourself into a good team."

"One of our other primary concerns has to be complacency, thinking that because we were good last year and people say that we're going to be good this year, that it means we're automatically going to win games. Each year, teams really determine for themselves how good they can be by their effort. Not just effort when the game starts – you have to have it every day in practice. The one thing we had last year was a great practice team. There were very few days when we didn't show up ready to practice. If we can continue to do that then I think we'll be a good basketball team."

And third for Williams, is how to continue molding newcomers into the mix. Among the new players this season is former Tulane scoring leader Byron Mouton, who served an NCAA-required redshirt season last year after a transfer from the Green Wave. Another addition is freshman forward Chris Wilcox who could go a long way in aiding the Terps' depth in the paint behind Baxter and senior big man Mike Mardesich.

Without question, the Terps will make another run at the top of the ACC and bid for at least an NCAA Sweet 16 appearance for the fifth time in eight seasons. Only time will tell how far they will go. Here is a closer look at Williams' cast for the upcoming season.

Guard

All successful teams boast an impressive point guard and last season proved the adage to be accurate as then-freshman Steve Blake energized the Terrapin program in his first college season. Taking over the team's primary ballhandling duties after the loss of backcourt mates Terrell Stokes and Steve Francis, Blake received some early lessons in ACC and national basketball wars and proved to be a quick study. His education continued during summer 2000 while playing with the USA Basketball U-20 Team.

Averaging 7.0 points as one of five Terrapins to knock down more than 30 3-pointers last season, Blake was chosen to the ACC All-Freshman team, earned All-ACC honorable mention merit and finished third nationally among freshmen with 6.2 assists. His 71 steals trailed only Juan Dixon's team-high 95.

And it was Dixon, now a junior, with whom Blake joined to form a combination that was electric both in moving the ball up the floor and giving opponents fits while on defense.

While Blake became one of the country's top freshmen, Dixon erupted all the way to All-America status. The Baltimore native became the ACC leader in steals (2.7) while pouring in 18.0 points per game to pace all Terrapin scorers with his aggressive, tough-minded, daring offensive repertoire. Dixon led the Terps with 49 3-pointers, finished second in the ACC in scoring, earned first team All-ACC honors and placed national All-America voters on full-alert status.

Returning by their side this year is sophomore sharpshooter Drew Nicholas who averaged over 15 minutes while appearing in all 35 games and averaging 5.1 points. In only half the time, he joined Blake and Dixon in the "over 30" 3-point club, scoring 31.

Perhaps the greatest impact player for the Terps this season will be junior Byron Mouton. Right away, the Terps' biggest and strongest backcourt member, the Terps not only add a new dimension to their backcourt, but add a fourth significant talent that would be a worthy starter on most teams. At 6-6 and 215 pounds, Mouton is quick enough to fill a guard slot, yet strong enough to see time inside at forward, also. He combined to average 13.5 points as Tulane's leading scorer as a freshman in 1998 and a sophomore in 1999, and his addition this season could elevate Maryland's quality depth in the backcourt to unrivaled status.

Mouton and returning junior Danny Miller both are players whose roles can fluctuate between a shooting guard and a small forward. Together, they make the Terps versatile with a big perimeter. Apart, their contrasting styles create difficult matchup situations.

All-America Candidate Terence Morris

Forward

When talking about the finest in the country, how do you exclude Terence Morris? You can't. He's an unselfish, do-everything talent who Williams and the Terps hope will command an even greater leadership presence in 2000-01.

At 6-9, Morris rebounds with the best in the ACC and scores from inside and out. He's a crowd-pleasing, rim-rattling finisher on the break, and his 35 treys last season proved his ability to score from long-distance. Add to that package 53 steals and 71 blocked shots, and you have an all-around performer that is second to none. Morris averaged 15.8 points and 8.6 rebounds last season while completing 12 double-doubles. He has been named an honorable mention All-American for three straight seasons, and when opting to return to Maryland for his senior season, automatically placed his name atop preseason All-America charts for his final campaign.

[illegible] Morris, the Terps are nearly as deep at [illegible] they are in the guard rotation. Morris is a [illegible] swing forward whose interior play is equal [illegible] on the perimeter.

Joining Morris on the outside in a small forward role are utilitymen Miller and Mouton.

Miller's 3-point prowess virtually matched that of his more-publicized teammate. Miller, 6-8, shot 34 of 95 beyond the arc in 1999-00 (Morris was 35 of 96), averaged 8.5 points and finished third on the the team with 2.7 assists. Often the most unsung member of last year's starting cast, Miller started in 34 games, reached double figures on 15 occasions, and was one of four Maryland players to log over 1,000 minutes.

Mouton, physically the Terps' strongest guard, may also be Maryland's quickest forward. His role lends itself to a forward slot in smaller lineups.

Helping Morris anchor the interior forward slot are four different athletes who give Williams considerable flexibility. Senior LaRon Cephas has seen consistent minutes in 50 games off the bench the last three seasons, but making the biggest impact behind Morris last season was newcomer Tahj Holden. Doubling as the Terps' center but versatile enough to run in a power forward slot is junior All-America candidate Lonny Baxter. And working into the rotation both at forward and center as a freshman this season is the much-ballyhooed 6-10 Chris Wilcox of Raleigh, N.C.

Holden, a sophomore, presents opponents with much the same package as Morris, though slightly thicker and not quite the outside scoring threat. Playing in 35 games last season, he averaged 3.3 points and 2.0 rebounds while contributing just over 12 minutes per contest. He did earn three starts due to injuries in the lineup, however, and when given opportunities, he made the most of them. When Morris went down against Wake Forest, Holden came off the bench to contribute 17 points and six rebounds in just over 18 minutes. A game later while starting in place of Morris, he notched a 12-point, 10-rebound double-double at Clemson.

Center

The center of attention much of last season was Lonny Baxter. Joining Dixon as a previously unheralded and little-thought-of sophomore, Baxter muscled all the way to an All-ACC first team selection. At 6-8 and 260 pounds, the burly junior enters his third college season as one of the ACC's most difficult players to defend – and one of the most lethal on the offensive boards.

In a big lineup with 7-footer Mike Mardesich in the past, Baxter is left to bang with undersized power forwards. In the past himself, most college centers not only struggle with his size, but his soft hands, offensive shooting touch and a remarkable finesse for a man his size.

Baxter averaged 15.6 points and 8.8 rebounds last season. He led the ACC in blocked shots and offensive rebounds, and was second in rebounds overall. Since assuming the starting role two years ago after a season-ending injury to Obinna Ekezie, Baxter has passionately worked his way to ACC stardom. His 12 double-doubles matched those of teammate Morris. His 31-point, 10-rebound effort was key in bringing the Terps from behind to defeat NC State last season, and his 24 points and 10 boards one game later helped Maryland defeat Duke in a landmark victory in Durham.

All-America Candidate Lonny Baxter

Simply put, Baxter is a load to handle. But even when he is out of the lineup, Mardesich has shown glimpses of greatness, himself, including a memorable role from the time he was a freshman in 1998, scoring 12 points with nine rebounds in 34 minutes of an upset of top-ranked North Carolina. Though not the Terps' consistent "go-to" man in the middle, Mardesich averaged 2.9 rebounds while playing in over 13 minutes of every game as a junior. One of three Terp seniors in 2001, his three seasons and 101 games of college experience will prove invaluable – whether it be joining Baxter in an oversized lineup, spelling Baxter or helping tutor Wilcox.

Wilcox, a 6-10, 220-pound blue-chip recruit ranked by many as one of the best prep talents in the country, should more than adequately provide the depth that sometimes was lacking in the past last season, and could capably challenge for significant playing time.

Capping the contingent at center and adding to the list of local stars is fellow freshman Matt Slaninka who, at 7-4 and a product of the fabled program at DeMatha High, certainly will be looked upon for quality minutes in the future.

Season and Schedule

All things considered, Williams and Maryland have ample reason to be eager and excited about the 82nd season of Terrapin basketball. The Terps are talented, and chemistry is what helped lead Maryland to maintaining its national status a year ago. Maryland is an unselfish, outstanding passing and defensive team which has benefited from its quality schedule and which hopes this year to move from being a good team to being a great team.

"One of our strengths was that we were a good passing team last year, and we should continue to be that," said Williams. "In college basketball, your ability to play together is becoming more important. That's probably the best thing we did last year. If we can continue to improve those things just by being a year older, we'll be very difficult to play against. We have good size and depth up front which should allow us to play physically."

"Unless we get lazy, we should be a good defensive team again, too. Defense is a gradual, learning process and we should benefit from being together last year as a team. As people tell you how good of a team you're going to be, there's a tendency to think that you can just outscore everybody because you're talented. But the real good teams get better and their defense continues to get better as seasons go along."

Those aspirations of becoming a great team will be tested early, and often, with what shapes up as one of the country's premier preseason schedules – a trip to Hawaii in November to join Arizona and Connecticut, among others, at the Maui Invitational; a trip to Big Ten country against 2000 Final Four participant Wisconsin as part of the ACC/Big 10 Challenge; a pair of games locally at the MCI Center, joined by George Washington, Michigan and St. John's in the BB&T Classic; and a February non-conference tilt at Cole Field House with Big 12 foe Oklahoma. Oh, yes, and let's not forget that 16-game ACC schedule.

Hoops fans in the Baltimore/D.C. area certainly will have no shortage of excitement with Maryland basketball this season. And if Williams & Co. have their wishes, Terp excitement will continue growing – through the ACC and toward many additional crowning achievements.

Preseason Maryland Basketball Notebook

Rankings Aplenty

Maryland begins its 2000-01 season with unprecedented preseason expectatians. Never before have the Terps returned five starters and three returning All-ACC first teamers (Terence Morris-1999, Juan Dixon-2000, Lonny Baxter-2000). All three have also been tabbed as preseason candidates for both the Naismith and Wooden Player of the Year Awards and the Terps are assured of their fourth Top 10 preseason ranking.

Previous Terp Top 10 preseason rankings by the Associated Press: 1971-6, 1972-3, 1973-4, 1974-4, 1975-3, 1976-8, 1980-4, 1983-8, 1994-7, 1998-6.

Williams Keeps Counting

Boasting more than 20 wins in five of his last six seasons at Maryland, Gary Williams is the 29th winningest active coach in the nation (424-256), entering his 12th year at Maryland and his 23rd year as a head coach overall.

Williams surpassed the 400-win plateau overall last season, and eclipsed the 200-win barrier while at Maryland, in a 72-66 win over Kentucky. He is 11 ACC wins shy of becoming just the ninth coach in history, and just the second from Maryland, to record 100 conference victories. He enters the 2000-01 campaign ranked 10th all-time among ACC coaching victories overall (217-128), and 12th in ACC league wins (89-83).

National Honors Trio

Forward Terence Morris was the 1999 Preseason ACC Player of the Year by several publications, but by season's end last year, guard Juan Dixon and center Lonny Baxter had risen to heights rivaling their star teammate. An All-ACC second team pick in 2000, Morris snubbed the NBA Draft to return for his senior campaign as one of the nation's best and most-recognized all-around talents.

The trio represents one of the most dynamic threesomes in the country. All three boast distinction as All-ACC first team picks during their sophomore campaigns, and all three have been named as preseason candidates for the 2001 Naismith and Wooden Player of the Year awards.

Streak's New Decade

Maryland has not lost a non-conference home game in over a decade – not since falling to Coppin State on Dec. 12, 1989 in Gary Williams' first season as the Terps' coach. On Dec. 30, 1989, Maryland defeated Alcorn State to begin what is now the nation's longest non-conference home court win streak, 71 games.

Last year, the streak included a 72-66 home win over Kentucky. This season's home slate includes a February non-conference bout with Oklahoma. The streak will first be tested this season on Wednesday, Dec. 6 when Stony Brook visits Cole Field House. Tracking the streak:

Seeking History

Maryland has advanced to a school-record seven straight NCAA Tournament appearances – the Terps seek their eighth straight in 2001. During the last two seasons, the Terrapins have finished second in the Atlantic Coast Conference in both 1999 and 2000 – only Lefty Driesell-coached teams of 1974, 1975 and 1976 finishes second or better in the ACC in three straight seasons. The Terps can match that mark in 2001.

Best Eras

The Terps' 74 wins in the last three seasons represent the best three-year stretch in Terrapin basketball history in terms of total wins. Likewise, Maryland's 34 ACC wins the past three seasons reflect the best three-year stretch of ACC victories. The Terps' 1998, 1999 and 2000 seasons also mark the first three-year period with consecutive double-digit wins in ACC play.

Maryland needs at least 24 wins this season to assure the best four-year stretch in the program's history. The current four-year mark is a stretch of 97 wins between 1972 and 1975.

A 20-win season in 2000-01 would match the school's best mark for consecutive 20-win seasons, five between 1972 and 1976.

53 Wins

Maryland's 53 wins over the past two seasons, in fact, are bettered by only six teams nationally:

School	Two Seasons	99-00	98-99
1. Duke	66-7 (.904)	29-5	37-2
2. Michigan State	65-12 (.844)	32-7	33-5
3. Connecticut	59-12 (.831)	25-10	34-2
4. Cincinnati	56-10 (.848)	29-4	27-6
5. Tulsa	55-15 (.786)	32-5	23-10
6. Gonzaga	54-16 (.771)	26-9	28-7
7. Stanford	53-11 (.828)	27-4	26-7
MARYLAND	53-16 (.768)	25-10	28-6
Auburn	53-14 (.791)	24-10	29-4
St. John's	53-17 (.757)	25-8	28-9

One Of Ten

Maryland is one of just ten schools to have participated in each of the last seven NCAA Tournaments. Only Arizona, Cincinnati, Indiana, Kansas, Kentucky, North Carolina, Purdue, Temple and UCLA join the Terps as teams that have competed in each of the last seven NCAA men's basketball tournaments.

In The ACC Tournament

Maryland is the only team in the ACC that has advanced to the ACC Tournament semifinals in each of the last six seasons, the best streak in Terrapin history. Last season's ACC championship game appearance was the Terps' first since 1984.

Morris On Career Charts

Terence Morris enters his senior season listed among Maryland's career Top 20 in seven different categories: blocked shots (5th), 3-point field goals (10th), 3-point field goal attempts (10th), steals (10th), rebounds (16th), field goal percentage (18th) and points (19th).

If Morris matches his 1999-00 output in each category, this is where he would finish his career among Maryland leaders: blocked shots (2nd), rebounds (3rd), points (5th), steals (5th), 3-point field goals (7th) and 3-point field goals attempted (7th).

Others On Terp Ladders

Juan Dixon enters his junior campaign already listed 7th among Terrapin career steals leaders with 146 and within the school record of 344 by Johnny "Ace" Rhodes, a current member of the Harlem Globetrotters. Dixon is 8th among leaders for 3-point field goals (85), also within reach of Rhodes' record 186.

2000-01 Captains: Mike Mardesich and Terence Morris

Lonny Baxter enters his third college season listed 8th among Maryland blocked shot leaders with 103, and field goal percentage at .549.

Playmaker Blake

Just a sophomore, Steve Blake enters his second Terrapin season after a freshman campaign in which he was second in school history with 217 assists for the season. His 6.3 assists per game last year were third among all national freshmen. His 71 steals represented not only the seventh-best season figure in Maryland history, but a tie for the most ever by a freshman.

More Records

The 1999-00 season was a record-breaking one, to say the least. Overall as a team, the Terps set single-season marks for field goal attempts, 3-point field goals made and attempted, and blocked shots. Last year's Maryland team was second all-time in assists and steals in a season.

Co-Captains And Experience

Maryland co-captains Mike Mardesich and Terence Morris have earned their posts as captains this season based largely on experience.

Mardesich, though largely unheralded and with zero starting assignments through three seasons, has played in every game of his career. His 101 consecutive games are within 31 games of breaking the Terps' all-time mark for games played (131 by Len Bias, 1982-86). They are 26 games of breaking the mark for consecutive games played (126 by Keith Booth, 1994-97).

Morris, meanwhile, missed last year's road game at Clemson to mark the only missed outing of his career. He has played 100 games entering his final season, one behind Mardesich.

GARY Williams

Head Coach
(Maryland '68)
12th Year at Maryland
At Maryland: (217-128, .629)
23rd Year Overall
Overall: (424-256, .624)

Milestones mounting and the almo moter's men's bosketboll program re-furbished and constructed to new heights, Gary Williams continues to drive Maryland toward the top of the college basketball world in his 12th seasan at the helm. Entering his 23rd season of college coaching overall, there is not much that Williams has not accomplished.

His 400th college victory, against Son Francisco in the 1999-00 opener, and his 200th on the Marylond sideline, in a home win over Kentucky lost seoson, speok volumes about success and longevity. Another success story during the Williams Ero at Moryland is obviously o coveted home court win streok over non-conference foes which now spons more than o decade -- 71 games in all os the Terps enter the 2000-01 campaign.

Williams, inducted into the Moryland othletic hall of fame in 1999, hos placed his olma mater's program bock among the top of the storied Atlantic Coast Conference. The Terps have become synonymous with Duke and North Carolina among the leogue's most dominant programs, and nationolly hove become o fixture omong weekly polls. Under Williams' guidance, Moryland hos achieved o school-record seven consecutive NCAA Tournoment oppeoronces, ond the Terps' 53 wins in the last two seasons ore bettered by only six schools nationally.

The decade of the 1990's was certainly a decode of resurgence for the Morylond bosketboll team. Since 1990, the Terps have soored to o level of notional prominence unmatched during the first century of the program. Included among the many superior accomplishments during the decade ond counting the 2000 season were: the school-record seven stroight NCAA Tournoment oppeoronces (1994-00), four "Sweet 16" appearances, seven consecutive upper division finishes in the ACC including runner-up distinction in 1999 and 2000, a school-record 28 victories during the 1998-99 season, four NBA lottery picks, one nationol Player of the Year and one ACC Player of the Year.

Added for good measure are an NBA Co-Rookie of the Yeor in Steve Francis (2000), and o preseason top five ranking for the second time in three seasons, ond whot you hove is a progrom and a cooch who have reached icon stotus.

Head coach Gary Willioms, who needs 11 ACC victories to become the ninth coach overoll and just the second from Maryland to reach the 100-win ploteau, is the threod that ties the Terrapin program together. Williams' accomplishments during his 11-year tenure at Maryland hove ploced him and his progrom omong the best in oll of college basketball.

Williams led Moryland to o school-record 28 victories and a school-record 13 ACC victories during the 1998-99 season. The Terps finished the seoson ranked No. 5 by the Associated Press - the highest final ranking since the 1974-75 season and only the third time in school history that the program had earned a top five final national ranking. During the season, Maryland was ranked in the top five for a near-school record 14 weeks and peaked at No. 2 as it won its first 10 gomes of the season. Maryland's No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament was tied for the highest tournoment seed in school history. Only four schools won more games than the Terps during the 1998-99 season.

A year later, in a 1999-00 seoson thot moy hove been one of Willioms' greotest coaching accomplishments ever, he guided o "rebuilding" Terrapin team to 25 wins, a second straight second-place finish in the ACC and its first trip to the conference tournoment finol since 1984. All with a freshman point guord, three first-year starters and only one senior (a non-starter) following the loss of three players to the NBA draft.

Three times, Willioms hos been voted as a national coach of the yeor finalist. In 1998, ACC Athlete Magazine voted him as the ACC Coach of the Year. He received the same honor from College Hoops Illustroted in 2000. He wos honored as the district cooch-of-the-year in 1981 and in 1983 he was named as the Eastern Coach-of-the-Yeor. Following Moryland's 1997 seoson, when the Terps advanced to the NCAA Tournoment and finished with o 9-7 record in the ACC, he was named as the Seaboard Region Coach-of-the-Year by Eastern Basketball.

Willioms is the only heod coach in school history to guide the Terps to eight postseoson tournament appeorances within his first 11 seasons. He is also one of only two coaches in school history to hove directed his first two teams to winning records and to a regular season conference championship during the first six years at the helm.

Williams was hired on June 13, 1989. He inherited a team that had won only nine games the year before, and finished in last place in the ACC. Williams displayed his coaching abilities immediately. The Terps won 19 games and advanced to the second round of the Notionol Invitation Tournament, moking Williams the first cooch in school history to lead a team into the postseason in his first season. In addition, Maryland's 10-game improvement in the win column during Williams' first season was the largest in school history and second largest in the annals of the ACC by a first-year coach. Only the legendary Press Maravich, who improved NC State's winning ledger by 13 games in his inaugural season (1965), can boast a higher first-year improvement in the win column.

Williams has led teams to postseason play at each stop on his coaching resume – American University, Boston College, Ohio State and Maryland.

Williams is the only coach to direct programs in the three most powerful conferences in college basketball – the Atlantic Coast, Big East and Big Ten. During Williams' combined 18 years in those three conferences, the national champion has come from Williams' league six times (three in his 10 years in the ACC, twice in his four years in the Big East and once in his three years in the Big Ten.)

A 1968 graduate of Maryland, Williams lettered as the Terps' starting point guard from 1964-67 under head coach Bud Millikan. He served as team captain during his senior season. It was as a player in the ACC that Williams developed his basketball philosophy. He studied the game under Millikan, and it was then that he developed his penchant for the full-court pressure defenses for which his teams are now known. He learned his half court man-to-man defense from Millikan, who learned from the legendary Hank Iba. The fast-breaking offense that Williams' teams employ is similar to the style Vic Bubas' Duke teams used when Williams was a player.

Williams began his coaching career as a graduate student at Maryland under a future boss, Tom Davis. Williams was Davis' assistant coach for the Maryland freshman team during the 1969 season. The team finished with a 12-4 record.

After earning a degree in business, he continued his coaching career as an assistant at Woodrow Wilson High School in Camden, N.J. After one year, he took over as the head coach and guided his first team to a perfect 27-0 record and the state title. Williams has called that season "the ultimate – there wasn't another game to win."

Williams spent one more year at Wilson before accepting an invitation from Davis in 1972 to become an assistant at Lafayette College. While an assistant at Lafayette, Williams also served as the head soccer coach. In 1978, Williams accompanied Davis to Boston College. After one year there, Williams became the head coach at American University.

Williams immediately began making his mark. His 1981 squad set the still-standing school record for victories with a 24-6 mark, won the East Coast Conference championship, and played in the NIT. Williams was named the district coach of the year. American returned to postseason play the next season as the Williams-led Eagles went 21-9 and played in the NIT for the second consecutive year. Only once prior to Williams' arrival had AU gone to a postseason tournament, and the Eagles have not returned to postseason play since. Williams' four-year record at AU was 72-42.

In 1983, Williams succeeded Davis at Boston College. He was once again an instant success, posting a 25-7 record and leading the Eagles to the regular season championship of the Big East in his first season. Making his first appearance in the NCAA Tournament, Williams directed the Eagles to the "Sweet 16." He finished third in the balloting for national coach of the year, and was honored as the Eastern Coach of the Year by his peers. He went on to duplicate that NCAA Tournament success again in 1985, when he again led Boston College to the "Sweet 16."

In 1987, Williams accepted the head coaching job at Ohio State, becoming the 10th basketball coach in that school's illustrious history. He succeeded Eldon Miller and once again enjoyed success. In three years, the Buckeyes made three postseason appearances. His first squad defeated then-No. 1 and unbeaten Iowa (coached by Tom Davis) in the regular season, in what would be the first of many giant-killings. During Williams' three-year term at Ohio State, OSU defeated a second-ranked Purdue team, perennial power Kansas and highly regarded Big Ten powers Michigan and Illinois. Each of Williams' three Ohio State teams advanced to postseason play, and he laid the groundwork for the highly successful teams that followed when he left Columbus for College Park.

During his head coaching tenure, 100 percent af his senior players earned their degrees.

DAVE Dickerson

Assistant Coach
(Maryland '90)
5th Year at Maryland

Dave Dickerson's four-year tenure as an assistant coach at Maryland has coincided with four of the most successful years in the history of the program. The Terps have made four NCAA Tournament appearances, finished in the top half of the ACC four times and been ranked among the nation's top 10 each season. During Dickerson's first four years, Maryland posted a 95-38 record (.714 winning percentage).

Overall, Dickerson's ten-year coaching career has resulted in 10 straight winning seasons and five postseason appearances.

Dickerson joined head coach Gary Williams' staff prior to the 1996-97 season and immediately began putting his stamp onto the program. During his first season, Maryland defeated three ranked teams and was ranked as high as No. 2 during the season. In 1997-98, the Terps advanced to the "Sweet 16" of the NCAA Tournament, and recorded 21 victories with wins over No. 1 North Carolina and No. 2 Kansas.

In 1998-99, Maryland won a school-record 28 games, a school-record 13 ACC games and once again advanced to the "Sweet 16" of the NCAA Tournament. During the season, the Terps captured championships of the Puerto Rico Shootout and the BB&T Classic and advanced to the semifinals of the ACC Tournament for the third consecutive season.

Dickerson's success as one of the nation's top recruiters has been a major part of Maryland's accomplishments on the court. Each of his first three recruiting classes were ranked among the nation's best. He was instrumental in attracting the Terps' 1997 and 1998 recruiting classes, both of which ranked in the top 10 nationally. Maryland's 1998 recruiting class was ranked third in the nation by Clark Francis of HoopScoop Magazine. The Terps' 1999 recruiting class contains three of the nation's top players at three different positions. In 2000, Dickerson helped land Raleigh, N.C., sensation Chris Wilcox.

Dickerson's scouting and recruiting abilities allowed Williams to gain an early evaluation of All-America guard Steve Francis. Francis was the No. 2 overall selection in the 1999 NBA Draft and finished fourth in ACC Player-of-the-Year voting last season.

It has been Dickerson's nationwide emergence on the recruiting trails that has allowed him to rise so quickly up the coaching ladder.

Prior to coming to Maryland, he was an assistant coach at Radford University. The recruiting classes he helped assemble at Radford were ranked among the nation's best. The 1994 season saw the Highlanders compile a 20-8 record and a school-record winning percentage of 71.4. The 20 wins are tied for the second-highest total in school history. Radford, which enjoyed winning seasons during each of his four years there, enjoyed the best four-year period in its history while Dickerson was an assistant.

It was also at Radford that Dickerson began to make his mark as a bench coach. Radford gained national acclaim and became one of the most successful programs in the Big South Conference during Dickerson's tenure. Radford defeated Louisiana State, 73-72, on Dec. 30, 1993 to gain the biggest victory in school history. The Highlanders scored the game-winning basket with 2.8 seconds remaining in the game just after LSU had taken its first lead of the second half. Dickerson was the assistant coach in charge of scouting LSU.

Dickerson played forward at Maryland from 1986-89 and earned four varsity letters. He was co-captain as a senior in 1989. Dickerson saw action in the 1986 and 1989 NCAA Tournaments and was a member of three teams that advanced to the ACC Tournament semifinals. The Terps won 19 games his freshman year and 18 during his junior season. Dickerson was a starter on the 1989 team that became the first No. 8 seed to defeat a No. 1 seed in the ACC Tournament when the Terps knocked off NC State.

In 1989, Dickerson earned his bachelor's degree in government and politics from Maryland. Soon after graduation he began his coaching career on the staff of Gardner Webb University in North Carolina. After a year at Gardner Webb he joined former Maryland head coach Lefty Driesell at James Madison for a 1992 season which culminated in a bid to the NIT.

From 1993-96, Dickerson was an assistant coach at Radford, where he began constructing his sparkling reputation under former Maryland assistant coach Ron Bradley.

A native of Olar, S.C., he earned the team award for Greatest Career Contribution in 1989 and for Most Improved Player in 1987. Dave is married to the former Ms. Laurette Newsom. Laurette is a 1991 graduate of Maryland. The couple gave birth to their first child, David III on Oct. 19, 2000.

JIMMY Patsos

Assistant Coach
(Catholic '89)
10th Year at Maryland

Jimmy Patsos is in his 10th season as an assistant coach on the University of Maryland basketball staff. During his tenure under head coach Gary Williams, the Terps have played in seven NCAA Tournaments, advanced to the "Sweet 16" four times, finished in the top half of the Atlantic Coast Conference seven times, won one ACC regular season championship and averaged nearly 20 wins per season. In addition, three players (Walt Williams in 1992, Joe Smith in 1995 and Steve Francis in 1999) have been lottery selections in the NBA Draft.

During his career at Maryland, he has coached seven NBA Draft choices including first round selections Williams, Smith, Francis and Keith Booth (Chicago Bulls, 1997).

His role as an academic mentor has proven prosperous, as the teams' overall academic performance has improved under his guidance. He works closely with the academic support unit of the athletic department and many of the professors on campus.

Patsos joined the staff as a volunteer assistant during the 1991-92 season and immediately became an integral part of Williams' staff. His numerous responsibilities center on opponent scouting, on-court coaching and the academic development of Maryland's players. Patsos has been a key component of Maryland's success and its current legacy of continuity.

Prior to his appointment to Williams' staff at Maryland, Patsos was the assistant coach at Archbishop Carroll High School in Washington, D.C. He helped Carroll to a 21-8 record and a national ranking of No. 6 during his first season. The team lost to the famed DeMatha Catholic High School in the city playoffs to end their stellar season. Patsos was involved in the maturation of Charles Harrison (Wake Forest) and Lawrence Moten (Syracuse), both of whom became stars on the collegiate level.

Patsos also coordinates the public speaking engagements of the Terps' players. Each summer, Patsos serves as the director of the Gary Williams basketball camp at the University of Maryland. The camp annually draws participants from around the world and is the showcase camp on the eastern seaboard. In his role as camp director, Patsos coordinates counselor management, facility and participant scheduling, housing, meals and guest speakers. The five sessions during the summer of 2000 ranked as the largest in camp history. In addition to his work with the Gary Williams camp, he is a frequent speaker at camps throughout Maryland, Delaware and Pennsylvania during the summer months.

Patsos was a three-year varsity letterwinner at Catholic University in Washington, D.C. During his career, the Cardinals posted a record of 51-26. Patsos played for the late Jack Bruen, who later led Colgate University to a pair of NCAA Division I Tournament appearances.

Catholic won four regular-season tournament championships during Patsos' career, including the 1989 Manhattanville Tournament. Patsos scored a career-high 17 points and grabbed a career-high 14 rebounds in the championship game to lead the Cardinals to a 106-99 victory over Manhattanville. Other top games during his senior season included 12 points

WILLIAMS ON MORRIS

"Every once in a while you have a player where you don't see any ceiling to his game. Terence has a chance to be great, and I don't say that about a lot of players. Terence was the guy last year who started the season and allowed us to get off to a good start. He probably had as much pressure on him as any other college basketball player in the country because he was picked player of the year in the ACC and first team All-America in the preseason. Really, when you looked at our team at the beginning of last year, there was nobody else that teams really focused on besides Terence. Terence took all that attention early in the year, and yet he had great games against some really good teams. And that allowed Lonny Baxter and Juan Dixon to develop their game kind of off to the side where people really weren't focused on them. To Terence's credit he's completely unselfish. He passed up shots for the other guys' benefit last year and did a lot of things team-wise. I think Terence is one of those people who is genuinely happy when the team wins. There are a lot of guys that say they are, but might not be. I think Terence is very happy regardless of what his stats reveal. He is a great passer, too, especially for his size. He's one of the best passers for a player that size that I've ever coached. His decision to come back this year was just a very mature decision on his behalf. In other words, he could have gone out and made a lot of money this year, but he will be here as a better player at the end of next season, than he was at the end of this past season."

LaRON 21 Cephas

'99-00 PPG: 1.5, RPG: 1.4

Wilmington, Del.
(The Sanford School)
6-7 • 217 • Senior

On Cephas

Fifth-year senior who begins his final campaign at Maryland as a utility forward ... a strong rebounder whose game is mostly suited to playing an interior role ... began to see more consistent minutes in his junior season and time should increase as a senior ... has appeared in 50 career games with an average of 4.3 minutes per contest ... has fully recovered from a pair of surgeries during and after his redshirt freshman season ... his junior campaign was his first full season at Maryland not impacted by medical issues.

Williams on Cephas

"Ceph finally got to help us last year [after recovering from knee surgery]. He really came on and gave us some valuable miutes in some games at the end the year. LaRon has really good leadership qualities and the other players seem to really enjoy having him on the court. They seem to respond to him very well. Cephas is an intelligent guy and is a leader on campus in addition to being one on the basketball court."

1999-00

Played in 14 games and averaged 5.3 minutes ... averaged 1.5 points and 1.4 rebounds .... 21 points for the season exactly matched his season output in 1999 ... season-high six points in ACC Tournament quarterfinal vs. Florida State . scored five in home win over Georgia Tech ... season-best five rebounds in early-season win over Fairleigh Dickinson ... most extensive playing time was against FDU when he added three points and a steal in 14 minutes ... 11 minutes in FSU tournament game, and the Georgia Tech game at Cole marked the most extensive time against ACC opponents during his career ... lauded by Coach Williams for six quality minutes against FSU on Jan. 29 in what was then his most lengthy court action in an ACC game ... appeared in both NCAA Tournament games, logging 11 minutes combined against Iona and UCLA ... had two rebounds against the Gaels and three against the Bruins.

WILLIAMS ON BAXTER

"Lonny has a great wark ethic. He improved after his freshman year. He really did in the off-season what he had to da ta get ready ta play this past season. He's a very strang, physical player. He's a very tough player wha hates to lose, but I think the key thing far Lanny is he never really feels that he's reached a certain level. Even thaugh he made first team all-league, he still wants to work on his game and improve same things. I agree with Lanny. Even though he had a great saphamore year, he has a tremendous up-side to his game. There are a lat mare things on the court I expect him to do. He will continue to expand his role before we get into his senior year."

WILLIAMS ON DIXON

"Juan has exceeded most people's expectations for what he was going to do. Now, the big thing for Juan is to come back and become a better player as a junior as he gets stronger. I think getting stronger will really help his game. Juan has established himself as one of the best guards in the ACC. He's very determined on the basketball court. He's one of the most positive players I've coached in terms of staying with his shot and not letting slumps or setbacks get in his way. He's very resilient."

On Miller

Third-year perimeter player who was one of four Terps to log over 1,000 minutes last season ... oft-unheralded player who has played key minutes and scored key baskets in each of his two college seasons ... tall and lanky at 6-8, possesses outstanding jumper ... classified as a guard, can also play a swing forward in smaller lineups.

Williams on Miller

"Danny did a lot of things for us last year that normally didn't show up on the scoreboard. He's very versatile. He's almost like a utility infielder in baseball where he plays a lot of positions for you and doesn't get a lot of recognition. He had some big games for us. He was able to step up his offense when we needed him. This is a big year for Danny as a junior in the program, having played a lot last year as a starter and really contributing the year before as a freshman. Now we expect him to take it to the next level this year."

1999-00

Started in all 34 games he played, averaging 8.5 points, 2.9 rebounds and 2.7 assists ... winner of Maryland's "Unsung Hero" postseason award ... shot 44.9 percent from the floor and 35.8 percent from 3-point range ... was one of five Terps with 30 or more 3-pointers, hitting 34 in 95 attempts ... fifth-most 3-pointers ever made by a Maryland sophomore ... career-high 20 points in regular season finale at Virginia ... shot 9 of 12 from the floor before fouling out in overtime ... 11 games in double figures ... scored then-career-high 16 points including all four 3-point attempts in upset win at No. 3 Duke ... added two blocks and five rebounds in win at Durham ... also had 16 points in non-conference tilt vs. UMBC ... career highs of seven rebounds and eight assists vs. Fairleigh Dickinson ... registered four steals apiece against both San Francisco and Winthrop ... played 40 of 45 minutes in Virginia overtime game ... played 38 minutes at Duke ... missed the NCAA Tournament game vs. Iona with a sprained left ankle.

One of only two Terp freshmen to play in all 34 games during his true freshman season ... averaged 4.2 points and 2.1 rebounds ... his 13 3-point field goals were the 13th-best single season total by a freshman in school history while his 39 3-point shot attempts ranked as the fifth-highest total by a Maryland freshman ... "Byron had a very good year last season in terms of contributing to the team. What I learned about Byron is how much he loves to play basketball. He really enjoys the competition, even in practice situations. I think Byron gives us the depth in the back court that we might not have had last year and he gives us a physical presence. He's our biggest guard and he's a tough guy and potentially a very good defensive player. In practice he's shown he really can score, so hopefully he'll transfer that into the game."

Guard
Miami Lakes, Fla.

On Blake

Sophomore guard who rose to national and ACC prominence in his first college season ... stepped into a starting role from the time he arrived on campus and never relinquished his position ... earned ACC postseason honors as a freshman ... earned a silver medal during summer 2000 as a member of the USA Basketball World Championships Qualifying Team.

Williams on Blake

"Steve came in under a lot of pressure last year because he had to play. Losing Steve Francis and Terrell Stokes, that left Steve as the only pure point guard in the program. To come in and do what he did as a freshman in terms of being tough with the ball and playing good defense, it was a big plus for us last year. It was critical to our success. His offense really got stronger as the year went on. He's starting from a very good position this year in terms of what he can do as a point guard. He's going to be asked to do more things this year, but I think Steve's the type of player that likes that responsibility."

On Holden

Second-year player who was impressive as a freshman and who established his role as a key player off the Terrapin bench ... earned three starts in his first college season and was instrumental in maintaining the Terps' nine-game ACC win streak in 2000 ... player with excellent size who can also step out and hit the 3-pointer.

Williams on Holden

"Tahj was great as a freshman. I can't say enough about him. I never saw as much criticism of a player before he even got a chance to practice by some people, and he just threw it all in their face. Tahj is a very tough, physical player who had a lot going against him in high school. He obviously can shoot the ball at 6-10 and 247 pounds. Plus, he's going to continue to get bigger and stronger. He certainly has a chance to be a very good player at University of Maryland. It was great to see him happy with the year he had as a freshman, and he'll build on that during his sophomore year. Tahj is very smart. He's one of those players who, as a coach, you don't have to say things twice to him."

On Nicholas

Sharp-shooting sophomore guard who was a valuable asset in his first season ... was a tremendous aid as the first guard off the bench ... a good scoring threat off the bench ... will only improve with experience and strength.

Williams on Nicholas

"Drew came in with the reputation as a shooter and he certainly is a very good shooter. His game expanded during the year last season to where he also became an adequate defensive player. Drew is another player whose added strength will help him become a better defensive player and also help his shooting ability. As he gets stronger in the legs it will allow him to shoot the ball a little easier. Drew had a very good freshman year. A lot of people thought he wasn't going to play much last year, so I think he was a big surprise, now he's got to use that as motivation for his sophomore year."

CALVIN McCall 11

'99-00 PPG: 1.1, RPG: 0.8

Guard
Miami, Fla.
(Dr. Phillips)
6-3 • 200 • Sophomore

On McCall

Second-year walk-on guard who joined the Terps in late December 1999 following the Maryland football season ... was a valuable bench contributor, adding intensity and a defensive spark ... played in 13 basketball games ... first Maryland football player to score for the Terps' basketball team since Luba Zizakovic in 1992 ... started nine games as the football quarterback, as just a redshirt freshman ... set Maryland class records for pass attempts, completions, yards and total offense as a freshman ... guided consistent offensive improvements during the first half of 1999 football season before a late-season injury ... exhibited improving skills, a strong arm and growing confidence in his first season of play ... walked on to the Terrapin basketball team in winter and bolstered Maryland's defensive efforts from a guard/forward position ... played in 13 games, averaging 1.1 points in just over five minutes per game.

Williams on McCall

"Calvin was very important to the team because he gave us a good college basketball player to build on, and to go against in practice. When you look at the second team in practice with Byron, Calvin, Mike and Tahj, there were days when that team could beat our first team. He really gave us the depth that I think that all good teams have. He was great for the team, too, from a personality standpoint. He was one of those guys that didn't say a whole lot, but when he did it was either really funny or the right thing to say. I could see why he's a great quarterback. He has class, a real quiet leadership. I kind of like those guys rather than the guys that walk around clapping all the time doing all that stuff. Calvin's the guy that gets things done. He leads by example."

1999-00

Walked on to the Terrapin basketball team in December and bolstered Maryland's defensive efforts ... provided much-needed depth in the guard rotation ... played in 13 games, averaging 1.1 points in just over five minutes per game ... shot 5 of 22 from the floor, and four of seven from the line ... contributed 10 rebounds, 11 assists and five steals for the season ... in football, was a nine-game starter and established most Maryland freshman records for passing and total offense ... finished No. 2 among Division I-A freshman quarterbacks (behind Virginia Tech's Michael Vick) in passing efficiency and total offense ... runner-up for ACC Rookie of the Year honors ... completed 93 of 179 passes (.510) for 1,264 yards and five touchdowns ... threw just three interceptions and finished with the best interception ratia (nearly 60:1) in the ACC ... season was cut short by two games (torn medial collateral ligament in his left knee Nov. 9 vs. NC State) ... a two-time ACC Rookie of the Week ... the triggerman in the Terps' rejuvenated offensive attack, he helped Maryland rise from 105th nationally in 1998 to 54th overall in 1999 in final NCAA total offense rankings.

1998-99

Redshirt season ... did not play basketball ... traveled all season as Maryland's third quarterback.

High School

Graduated from Dr. Phillips High School in Orlando, Fla., in 1998 ... averaged more than 17 ppg during an all-state basketball career and hit better than .320 during his baseball career ... selected to the Metro Conference Hall of Fame ... named the Central Florida Player of the Year and a third-team all-state selection in 1997 ... selected to SuperPrep's all-regional team ... was recruited by Florida and Syracuse for football, and Kansas, Central Florida and South Florida for basketball ... completed 72 of 125 passes for 1,312 yards, 21 touchdowns and just two interceptions as a senior ... led team to a 10-1 record and district and conference championships ... selected to play in the North-South all-star game ... as a junior, he played safety and starred for the top-rated defense in central Florida, earning second team all-state honors ... ... high school football coach was Chip Gierke.

Personal

Terps Play In Seventh Consecutive NCAA Tournament

The Maryland men's basketball team finished with a 25-10 overall record, played in its seventh consecutive NCAA Tournament, finished in second place in the ACC with an 11-5 record, advanced to the ACC Tournament championship game and finished the season ranked 17th and 25th in the final AP and ESPN/USA Today polls of the season, respectively. It marked the third consecutive season that Maryland has been ranked in the final AP poll of the season.

The Terps were ranked in both of the final polls for the third consecutive season. That is the Terps' longest streak since a five-year run from 1972 through 1976.

Maryland was also well represented individually following the season. Sophomore Juan Dixon (Baltimore, Md.) earned honorable mention All-America and All-ACC first-team honors; sophomore Lonny Baxter (Silver Spring, Md.) earned All-ACC first-team honors; junior Terence Morris (Frederick, Md.) was an honorable mention All-America and All-ACC second-team selection, and Steve Blake (Miami Lakes, Fla.) was an ACC All-Freshman and honorable mention All-ACC selection.

Preseason NIT Semifinals

Gm 4 • Kentucky 61, Maryland 58

NEW YORK, N.Y. – No. 11 Kentucky held off a furious second-half comeback by No. 24 Maryland and hung on for a 61-58 victory in the semifinals of the Preseason NIT at Madison Square Garden. Maryland overcame a 16-point first half deficit to tie the game at 52 with six-and-a-half minutes remaining.

Baskets by Marvin Stone, who had 13-rebounds, and Keith Bogans, off a steal, restored a four-point lead for the Wildcats. Kentucky was still up by three with 32.6 seconds to play when Desmond Allison got tangled with a couple of Maryland players and turned the ball over.

Juan Dixon's 3-point attempt bounced off the rim in the final seconds, however, as Kentucky advanced to the Preseason NIT championship.

Junior All-American Terence Morris led Maryland with 25 points.

Preseason NIT Consolation

Gm 5 • Maryland 72, Notre Dame 67

NEW YORK, N.Y. – Sophomore Lonny Baxter scored 17 points and grabbed a career-high 14 rebounds as Maryland defeated Notre Dame 72-67 in the consolation game of the Preseason NIT.

Notre Dame had no inside answers for Baxter. He and Terence Morris helped Maryland open an 11-point halftime lead and the Terps threatened to blow the game open in the second half.

Notre Dame launched a frantic comeback that cut the margin to one point at 66-65. Five straight 3-pointers, two each by Matt Carroll and Jere Macura and one by Troy Murphy, got the Irish back in the game. But Baxter produced a pair of dunks inside, each time converting offensive rebounds into baskets, and Morris got free for another dunk to help Maryland stay in front.

Maryland outrebounded Notre Dame 38-34 and hurt the Irish with some timely 3-point shooting. All five starters were in double figures for the Terps, with Steve Blake getting 14, Morris and Danny Miller 12 apiece and Juan Dixon 11.

Martin Ingelsby and Carroll had 11 each for Notre Dame.

ATLANTA, Ga. – Shaun Fein scored 17 points and made four 3-pointers to lead the Yellow Jackets to a 69-68 upset of No. 18 Maryland. Juan Dixan scared a career-high 31 points for the Terrapins, but couldn't get off a shot at the end, sending Maryland to its third straight loss.

Dixon blocked a shot by Fein with 15 seconds left. Maryland hurried down the court and gat the ball in the hands of its leading scorer, who drove in the lone but had the ball knocked away as he attempted to pass.

Tech fell behind by 11 points in the first half before Fein hit a pair of treys during a run that cut Maryland's lead to 39-35 at the break. He finished 4-of-7 from outside the arc and Tech was 9-of-17 overall, taking advantage of Maryland's focus on 7-foot Jason Collier and 6-11 Alvin Jones.

The Yellow Jackets started the second half with a 12-2 spurt, going ahead for good when Collier tipped in a missed shot with 17:18 remaining. The Terps clased to 67-65 when Terence Morris was fouled on a 3-pointer and hit all three shots from the line with 1:01 left.

COLLEGE PARK, Md – Playing without junior All-American Terence Morris was no problem for No. 24 Maryland, which simply turned up the defense and unleashed freshman Tahj Holden on unsuspecting Clemson. Holden had 12 points and 10 rebounds in his first career start and the Terrapins allowed only eight first-half baskets in handing the Tigers a 74-62 loss, their sixth straight.

The Terrapins prevailed despite the absence of Morris, who sprained his left ankle one game earlier against Wake Forest. Morris had played in 83 straight games, including 51 consecutive starts.

Holden performed more than adequately in his place. Holden, a 6-foot-10 freshman, backed up a 17-point performance against Wake Forest with his first career double-double and also blocked five shots.

Juan Dixon scored a Maryland-high 18 points and Danny Miller 15 for the Terrapins. All five Terp starters scored in double digits, including 10 apiece from Lonny Baxter and freshman point guard Steve Blake.

Andrius Jurkunas scored 16 for Clemson. The Tigers, who last lost their first five ACC games in 1993, were held winless since Dec. 29. Will Solomon, who came in averaging an ACC-best 21.6 points per game, scored 12 on 4-for-14 shooting.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. – North Carolina avoided its first five-game losing streak since 1952 as Brendan Haywood matched his career-high with 24 points in a 75-63 victory over No. 21 Maryland.

Maryland led by as many as 11 points in the first half and seven at halftime, but the Tar Heels stormed back in the early portion of the second half to end a stretch of six losses in nine games. Maryland made 10 of its first 17 3-pointers, but a 14-0 North Carolina run midway through the second half turned the game around and put the Tar Heels up 59-50.

The Terrapins closed to 62-60 with 5:34 left on a 3-pointer by Juan Dixon, who scored 22 points, but then the 7-foot Haywood became a force. After an offensive rebound and follow by Julius Peppers, Haywood had a follow slam on its ensuing possession, forced a turnover on the defensive end and nailed two free throws as the Tar Heels went back up by eight with 3:20 remaining. They closed the game with a 13-3 run.

The game was pushed back 24 hours because of a 20-inch snowstorm that hit the area, and many of North Carolina's regular fans were absent. That meant students, the majority of which usually sit in the upper deck of the Smith Center, were allowed on the lower level and the increased noise seemed to aid the Tar Heels early in the second half.

COLLEGE PARK, Md – Lonny Baxter scored 24 points and Terence Morris had 18 points and 11 rebounds as No. 21 Maryland ended Virginia's five-game winning streak with a 91-79 victory.

Baxter, a burly 260-pound forward, had his way with Virginia's overmatched front line. He was aided by the lanky Morris, who helped Maryland dominate inside.

Juan Dixon scored 19 points for the Terrapins who made a season-high 30 free throws and outrebounded Virginia 39-26. Chris Williams scored 22 for the Cavaliers while Donald Hand, Virginia's leading scorer, missed his first seven shots and finished with five points.

Maryland led 49-47 before Baxter scored in the lane, Morris hit a hook and Mike Mardesich got a tip-in to make it 55-47. Adam Hall stopped the run with a 3-pointer, and his three-point play minutes later brought the Cavaliers to 60-55.

Morris then made two foul shots and Baxter scored in the lane to spark an 11-3 run that put Maryland up 71-58 with 8:04 left.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Lonny Baxter scored a career-high 31 points and led a furious comeback as Maryland overcame a 12-point deficit in the final seven minutes to beat NC State, 78-73.

Juan Dixon added 17 points for the Terrapins who scored the game's final 10 points after falling behind 73-68 with 2:59 left. Justin Gainey scared 21 points and Anthony Grundy 16 for the Wolfpack.

NC State led by 17 in the first half but ended up falling to 0-4 on the road in the ACC. A 3-pointer by Goiney made it 58-51 with 10 minutes left, and his two free throws sparked a 7-0 run that put the Wolfpack up 65-53 with 7:03 to go. Minutes later, Gainey hit two foul shots to make it 71-63.

Then Maryland took charge. Baxter made a three-point play and Terence Morris sank two free throws. After a basket by NC State, the Wolfpack's Damon Thornton was called for his fifth foul and received a technical, too. Juan Dixon made the two foul shots, then scared from the baseline to make it 73-72 with 2:33 left.

After Grundy missed two free throws, a short hook by Baxter with 1:15 left gave Maryland its first lead since 2-0. Baxter then hit a layup with 40 seconds left for a 76-73 lead, and the Wolfpack's last gasp foiled when Marshall Williams fired an air-ball from 3-point range.

DURHAM, N.C. – Maryland got 31 points from Juan Dixon and two key 3-pointers late by Terence Morris in defeating Duke, 98-87, to snap Duke's record 31-game Atlantic Coast Conference winning streak.

Duke had the nation's longest winning streak snapped at 18 and last in Cameron Indoor Stadium for the first time since Jan. 11, 1997 against Wake Forest – a span of 46 games.

Dixon's point total matched a career high, while Lonny Baxter added 22 points and Morris had 20 as the Terrapins tied North Carolina for second place in the ACC. The game was tied 83-83 when Morris hit a baseline 3-pointer with 3:27 left to give Maryland the lead for good. A minute later, he made another shot from beyond the arc and the upset was brewing.

Dixon helped seal the win with three fouls shots over the final 31 seconds as the Terrapins outscored Duke 15-4 down the stretch. Neither team led by more than seven points until the final two minutes in arguably the best ACC game of the year as both teams shot 53 percent.

Duke made 13 of its first 17 shots, but unlike most of its wins during the Cameron streak, the Blue Devils couldn't knock out their opponent, turning the ball over 12 times in the opening 20 minutes. Shone Battier played all 40 minutes and led the Blue Devils with 28 points.

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. – Juan Dixon made three of six shots from beyond the 3-point arc and finished with 20 points as Maryland won its third consecutive conference game on the road and swept Wake Forest for the first time since 1993-94

Terence Morris scored 15 of his 17 points in the second half and added seven rebounds and four assists, helping the Terrapins win for the eighth time in nine league games after an 0-3 start. Maryland turned up the defensive pressure late, holding Wake Forest without a field goal over the final eight-plus minutes, when the Demon Deacons missed their final 13 shots.

Wake Forest's Darius Songaila had 22 points and 12 rebounds, but the Demon Deacons got just two points from top offensive threat Robert O'Kelley, who missed eight of his nine field-goal attempts. Josh Howard added 11 points for Wake Forest and Rafael Vidaurreta and Ervin Murray each had 10. The Demon Deacons outrebounded Maryland 42-31

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Juan Dixon scored 18 of his 23 points in the second half, and Maryland clinched at least a share of the runner-up spot in the Atlantic Coast Conference by beating North Carolina 81-73.

All-America forward Terence Morris had 16 points and nine rebounds for the Terrapins who won their eighth straight ACC game to mark the longest streak in one season in school history.

Maryland's lone conference loss over its last 11 games came exactly one month ago at North Carolina. After losing their first three league games, the Terrapins have beaten every ACC team at least once including a win at Duke in what was the Blue Devils' lone conference loss over the past two seasons.

Maryland shot 37 percent from the field and went 5-for-12 at the line in the first half, but took advantage of 12 North Carolina turnovers to build a 37-27 lead. With Lonny Baxter on the bench with three fouls, Morris scored six points as the Terrapins closed the half with a 12-0 run that included a buzzer-beating jumper by Steve Blake.

North Carolina closed to 41-35 shortly after halftime before Dixon hit a 3-pointer and Baxter followed with a dunk. North Carolina then lost 6-foot-11 forward Kris Lang, who fouled out with 14:27 to go.

After the Tar Heels got within nine points, Drew Nicholas sank a 3-pointer and Morris hit a 15-footer. Dixon then answered a dunk by Brendan Haywood with a jumper beyond the arc to put Maryland up 64-49 with 7:11 remaining.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Steve Blake scored nine of his career-high 17 points during a pivotal 12-0 second-half run as No. 17 Maryland pulled away from Florida State and recorded its ninth straight Atlantic Coast Conference victory, 85-70.

Terence Morris had 21 points and 11 rebounds for the Terrapins who clinched second place in the conference for a second straight season. The nine-game ACC run marked the longest by a Maryland team in a season and is two short of the school record. Lonny Baxter also had 21 points for the Terrapins, who finished 15-1 at home.

Blake had 10 assists and pushed his season total to 187, breaking the school record for a freshman held by John Lucas (178 in 1973). Blake was 6-for-8 from the field and also grabbed four rebounds.

Blake started his most productive game of the season on the bench. Seldom-used Matt Hahn, getting his first college start for Maryland on senior night, was scoreless before being removed after six minutes. Hahn returned in the final minute and capped the night by scoring Maryland's last basket.

Damous Anderson scored 22 points for the Seminoles who lost their eighth straight to Maryland and seventh in a row at Cole Field House.

ACC Tournament Quarterfinals

Gm 31 • Maryland 82, Florida State 61

CHARLOTTE, N.C. – Lonny Baxter and Juan Dixon powered an opening 16-5 run to send No. 20 Maryland to an 82-61 victory over worn-out Florida State in the Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament. It was Maryland's ninth straight victory over Florida State, and it put the Terps into the ACC semifinals for the sixth consecutive year.

The seventh-seeded Seminoles showed all the signs of fatigue that might be expected from a team that struggled less than 17 hours earlier in a 63-62 victory over Georgia Tech. Florida State never led, shot 40 percent and had 21 turnovers that the Terrapins converted into 29 points.

Baxter had 24 points and 10 rebounds, and Dixon had 12 points, eight assists and three steals. The Terrapins also got 17 points from Terence

Morris. Maryland was credited with assists on 25 of its 33 field goals. Maryland set the tone from the outset by hitting seven of its first eight field-goal attempts. Boxter hit all five of his shots to put the Terrapins up by 11.

ACC Tournament Semifinals

Gm 32 • Maryland 64, NC State 61

CHARLOTTE, N.C. – Juan Dixon had 21 points and Lonny Baxter 15, including Maryland's final five, as No. 20 Maryland defeated NC State 64-61 to advance to the ACC championship game for the first time since 1984.

Maryland overcame 21 turnovers and a first-half drought that enabled NC State to rally from a 13-point deficit. The sixth-seeded Wolfpack converted the Terrapins' miscues into 20 points, but came up short in their bid for their second berth in the ACC championship game in four seasons under coach Herb Sendek.

Ron Kelley added 11 points for the Wolfpack, held to 38-percent shooting. Terence Morris had 11 points and 11 rebounds for Maryland.

There were five lead changes and three ties in the second half before Dixon scored on a fastbreak layup to put Maryland ahead to stay at 59-58 with 2:21 left. After NC State's Tim Wells missed a 17-footer from the right wing, Baxter scored on a spinning layup to make it 61-58.

In the final minute, Baxter banked in a short jumper, then added a foul shot on the Terrapins' next possession to stretch their lead to 64-59 with 22 seconds left. A tip-in by Kelley closed the scoring with 22 seconds left. NC State had a shot to tie it, but Wells missed from the left wing with four seconds remaining, and Maryland got the rebound and ran out the clock.

ACC Tournament Championship

Gm 33 • Duke 81, Maryland 68

CHARLOTTE, N.C. – Duke secured a No. 1 seed in the NCAA tournament and probably the nation's top ranking with its convincing win over Maryland in the ACC Tournament championship game. Duke's freshmen led the way as Jason Williams scored a season-high 23 points and Carlos Boozer added 21 as the top-seeded Blue Devils became the first program since the 1973 and 1974 North Carolina State teams to win consecutive outright ACC regular-season and tourney titles.

In what was Maryland's first championship game appearance in 16 years, Juan Dixon led the second-seeded Terrapins with 19 points.

Williams scored 15 of his points in the second half and got Duke's outside game going with a 3-pointer to open the half. Boozer scored 11 points after the break, taking care of Duke's inside game.

NCAA Tournament First Round

Gm 34 • Maryland 74, Iona 59

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. – Junior All-American Terence Morris had 22 points and 12 rebounds as third-seeded Maryland ran all over 14th-seeded Iona, 74-59, in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

Morris had 14 points and 10 rebounds by halftime when the Terps led 38-25. Maryland raced to a 23-4 lead after the opening tip.

The Terps' lead was 60-32 midway through the second half when the Gaels made it respectable behind Tariq Kirksay, the player of the year in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference, who scared 20 of his 24 points after halftime. The Gaels pulled within 12 points on Kirksay's 3-pointer just inside the two-minute mark but that was as close as they got.

Maryland forward Danny Miller sat out with a sprained left ankle. Hurt in the final of the Atlantic Coast Conference tournament, Miller's injury forced the Terps to rely heavily on freshmen Tahj Holden in big lineups and Drew Nicholas in three-guard sets.

NCAA Tournament Second Round

Gm 35 • UCLA 105, Maryland 70

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. – UCLA put on a stunning offensive display in a 105-70 victory over Maryland in the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Earl Watson had 17 points and a school-record 16 assists as the sixth-seeded Bruins connected on six fearsome alley-oops, a school-record 14 3-pointers and absolutely everything in between.

The key to everything was Watson, who was heavily criticized earlier this season for his point guard play. He answered all of his detractors with a dominant performance that awed the Metrodome crowd and his teammates alike. His assists also set a Midwest Regional record and tied the NCAA Tournament record for assists in a first- or second-round game. As if that wasn't enough, he was 5-of-6 on 3-pointers.

The Bruins closed the first half with a 22-7 run and made a 16-2 run to start the second half, going up 76-41 just seven minutes after halftime.

UCLA shot 74 percent before the final minutes and also played impressive defense, limiting Juan Dixon, who made seven turnovers, to 16 points on 6-of-18 shooting. Lonny Baxter had 22 points and 10 rebounds for the Terrapins. Maryland failed to reach the round of 16 for just the third time in the last seven seasons.

Bias is the Terps' all-time leading scorer with 2,149 career points ... he holds two of the school's top three single-season marks ... led the ACC in scoring two straight years ... his best scoring performance, 41 points at Duke in 1986, ranks as the second-best single-game performance in school history and is the top performance by a Terp in a road game ... is No. 9 on the Maryland career rebounding list with 755 total rebounds ... is No. 9 on the school's career shot-blocked list with 87 ... he was the No. 2 pick overall in the 1986 National Basketball Association college draft, taken by the Boston Celtics.

Terps' NBA Draft History

WASHINGTON, D.C – Buoyed by three first and second round draft picks from Washington, D.C.'s MCI Center at the 1999 NBA Draft, Maryland and Gary Williams have asserted themselves in recent years among the most prominent schools in developing NBA talent.

What's more, Maryland's Steve Francis, the No. 2 pick in that '99 draft, went on to become the NBA's Co-Rookie of the Year last season. Joining Francis in the '99 draft bonanza were teammates Obinna Ekezie and Laron Profit, giving the Terps three selections in a single draft for the fourth time in school history. Chosen by the Vancouver Grizzlies to give Maryland three lottery selections in just an eight-year span, Francis was traded in the preseason to the Houston Rockets for whom he led all NBA rookies with 6.6 steals in 1999-00, and was the second-leading rookie scorer with 18 points per game.

Speculation raged before the '99 draft that the Chicago Bulls, with the No. 1 overall selection, would select Francis. Had Francis been the No. 1 overall selection, Maryland would have become the first school in NBA history to have three No. 1 selections. Previously, John Lucas was the top pick by the Houston Rockets in 1976 and Joe Smith was picked first by the Golden State Warriors in 1995.

The Terps' draft windfall brought to four the number of all-time Maryland lottery selections – tied for eighth among all NCAA schools. Francis' selection with the No. 2 overall pick brought to three the number of lottery selections at Maryland under head coach Gary Williams. Overall, five Maryland players and seven overall since 1987 have played for Gary Williams and become first-round draft picks with guaranteed contracts.

Since Williams' arrival at Maryland to begin the 1990 season, a total of 10 players (an average of one per season) have begun their professional careers as NBA draft choices. During his career, an incredible total of 23 players (an average of more than one per year) have been NBA draft choices.

Leading the Way into the 21st Century

- A Carnegie Research-I University
- Member, Assoc. of American Universities (AAU)
- Flagship of the University System of Maryland
- Division I NCAA Athletics

"Strive for clarity, but accept and understand ambiguity."

That phrase captures one way in which an educated person approaches the world and its challenges. Students who graduate from the University of Maryland have been exposed to the tools that allow them to put that perspective to work. Imparting such a perspective may be an ambitious project for undergraduate education, but to aim for anything less would be unworthy of a great university's goals for its students. Ten years ago, Promises to Keep, a plan for undergraduate education at Maryland, articulated those goals so eloquently we repeat them here.

Undergraduate education at Maryland "aims to provide students with a sense of identity and purpose, a concern for others, a sense of responsibility for the quality of life around them, a continuing eagerness for knowledge and understanding, and a foundation for a lifetime of personal enrichment."

As we learn with and from one another, we try to "develop human values," "celebrate tolerance and fairness," "contribute to the social conscience," "monitor and assess private and collective assumptions," and "recognize the glory, tragedy and humor of the human condition." Your years at the University of Maryland can provide you with all the tools you need to accomplish these goals. Students here are "educated to be able to read with perception and pleasure, write and speak with clarity and verve, handle numbers and computation proficiently, reason mathematically, generate clear questions and find probable arguments, reach substantiated conclusions, and accept ambiguity."

And we also hope you enjoy the journey.

University of Maryland

The Campus

The University of Maryland, College Park, is the most comprehensive institution of higher education, research and service in the state. The university offers 100 undergraduate majors, 88 master's programs and 69 doctoral programs in 13 colleges and schools.

The university is one of only 30 public research universities that are members of the prestigious 58-member Association of American Universities. It is classified as a Research-I university by the Carnegie Foundation by virtue of the range of its baccalaureate programs, the amount of federal support received and the number of doctoral degrees awarded each year, sharing that honor with the top research universities in the country.

Among the public universities in the Association of American Universities, Maryland ranks among the top in percentage of African-American undergraduate students. In addition, the university has the largest number of African-Americans and other minority members among its peers.

Flagship Status

In 1988, the University of Maryland, College Park, was designated as the flagship institution for the University System of Maryland. As well as pursuing a serious research mission and continuing its high level of service to the state, the university rededicated itself to providing the highest quality graduate and undergraduate education. Increased undergraduate opportunities for research and individual study; the development of the College Park Scholars Program and the expansion of the University Honors Program; the genesis of Honors Humanities and Gemstone; the creation of CORE, the general education program; and the establishment of the Center for Teaching Excellence all affirmed the legislature's designation of flagship.

Libraries

Seven libraries make up the University of Maryland library system: McKeldin (main) Library, Architecture Library, Art Library, Engineering and Physical Sciences Library, Hornbake Library, Performing Arts Library, White Memorial (Chemistry) Library.

These libraries constitute the largest university research library institution in the Washington metropolitan area, providing vital resources to researchers, visiting scholars, and businesses throughout the region. The libraries' holdings include more than 2.5 million volumes, 24,000 subscriptions to periodicals and nearly 5 million items available in microfilm format.

Research

Opportunities for conducting research abound at the University of Maryland, College Park, and in the surrounding area, both for faculty to advance their own expertise and bring their insights into the classroom, and for students to begin their exploration of their special interests with practical experience. On campus, special facilities and a number of organized research centers, bureaus, and institutes promote the acquisition and analysis of new knowledge in the arts, sciences ond applied fields.

The university's enviable location – just nine miles from downtown Washington, D.C., and approximately 30 miles from both Baltimore and Annapolis – enhances the research of its faculty and students by providing access to some of the finest libraries and research centers in the country.

Service

Programs of public service are central to the overall mission of the university. The philosophy is reflected in the wide array of programs and initiatives that benefit the state's business, agriculture and education communities.

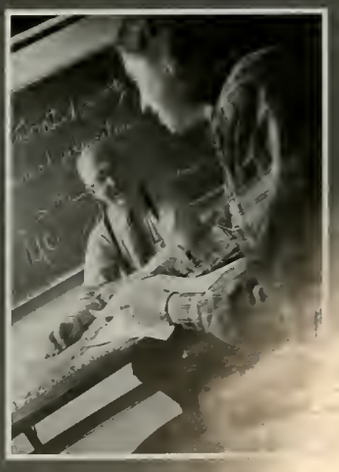
With more than 90 high technology firms in the three-county area of Montgomery, Prince George's and Frederick counties, the university has found abundant opportunity to extend its business and technology outreach programs to the region. Many of these programs are part of the Engineering Research Center, which operates the Technology Advancement Program and the Maryland Industrial Partnerships, programs designed to provide Maryland entrepreneurs and small businesses with research facilities, technical assistance, administrative support, and access to technology that will advance their economic base.

The Institute for Systems Research has formed partnerships with major corporations, including Lockheed Martin, Westinghouse, BF Goodrich, Hughes Aircraft and Dupont to apply advanced systems research to solving industry problems in the fields of communications, manufacturing, controls and robotics.

The University of Maryland features a diversity of cultural and recreational activities. Four art galleries, more than 200 annual musical performances and countless dance and theater productions, expose audiences to the broadest range of programs in the arts. And intercollegiate, club and intramural sports provide students of all levels an opportunity to participate as spectators or athletes.

A Wired World

Students at the University of Maryland are part of an academic community that enjoys free access to networked computer resources and facilities that are among the best in the country. Free computer accounts enable users to store class work on a networked server, download classroom support materials and other electronic information from campus networked resources such as inforM, or send electronic mail to faculty, fellow students or friends at other universities.



Maryland's Colleges and Schools

College of Agriculture and Natural Resources

The College of Agriculture and Natural Resources offers a variety of academic programs that apply science, management, design, and engineering to improve the world in which we live and work. Feeding the world population, developing scientifically-based land use practices and policies, understanding animal and plant biology, improving nutrition and its effects on human health, and profitably managing farms and agribusinesses in harmony with ecosystems are all vital concerns of the college.

School of Architecture

The School of Architecture offers a four-year undergraduate program leading to the bachelor of science degree in architecture, and a graduate program leading to the professional master of architecture. The undergraduate major in architecture is designed to minimize the time required to complete the curriculum leading to the professional degree. Students receive rigorous and comprehensive instruction from a faculty whose members are active in professional practice or research. Many faculty members have distinguished themselves across the professional spectrum and represent different approaches to architectural design. The B.S. degree in architecture will qualify graduates to pursue a career in any number of fields, such as construction, real estate development, public administration, or historic preservation, or to continue in graduate work in professional fields such as architecture, urban planning, or law.

College of Arts and Humanities

The College of Arts and Humanities embraces a heterageneous group of disciplines, all of which value the development of critical thinking, fluent expression in writing and speech, sensitivity to ethical and aesthetic standards, and a complex understanding of history and culture. Preparation provides valuable background for careers in a broad range of fields.

College of Behavioral and Social Sciences

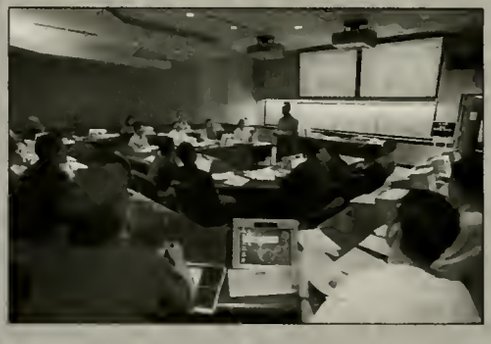
The College of Behavioral and Social Sciences is comprised of a diverse group of disciplines and fields of study all of which emphasize a broad liberal arts education as the foundation for understanding the environmental, social and cultural forces that shape our world. Disciplines in the behavioral and social sciences use approaches that range from the scientific to the philosophical, from the experimental to the theoretical.

Robert H. Smith School of Business

The Robert H. Smith School of Business recognizes the importance of education in business and management to economic, social, and professional development through profit and non-profit organizations at the local, regional, national and international levels. The faculty are scholars, teachers, and professional leaders with a commitment to superior education in business and management, specializing in accounting, finance, decision and information sciences, management science and statistics, management and organization, marketing, logistics and transportation, and business and public policy.

College of Computer, Mathematical, and Physical Sciences

The College of Computer, Mathematical, and Physical Sciences contributes very substantially and effectively to the research activities of the University of Maryland. This college is like a technical institute within a large university. Students majoring in any one of the disciplines encompassed by the college have the opportunity of obtaining an outstanding education in their field.



College of Education

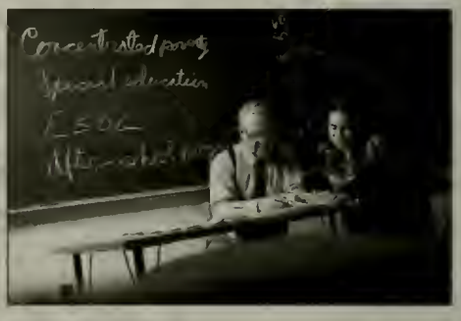
The College of Education is a professional college committed to advancing the science and art of teaching/learning, including the practices and processes which occur from infancy through adulthood in both school and non-school settings. The college's mission is to provide preparation for current and future teachers, counselors, administrators, educational specialists, and other related educational personnel, and to create and disseminate the knowledge needed by professionals and policy makers in education and related fields.

A. James Clark School of Engineering

The mission of the Clark School of Engineering is to provide quality engineering education, with sufficient scope to include both fundamental and specialized engineering training, so that graduates are prepared to serve the current and emerging needs of society. In addition to its teaching role, the school feels a related responsibility to conduct strong research programs that contribute to the advancement of knowledge.

College of Health and Human Performance

The College of Health and Human Performance provides preparation leading to the bachelor of science degree in the following professional areas: physical education (K-12), health education (school and community), and family studies. The college also offers curricula in kinesiological sciences and safety education. In addition, each department offers a wide variety of courses for all university students.



College of Journalism

Located just nine miles from the nation's capital and 30 miles from the bustling commercial port of Baltimore, the College of Journalism is one of six comprehensive journalism schools in the 10 states stretching from New York to Virginia – the nation's most populous region. But the college has a lot more than geography going for it. The National Assessment of Journalism Education by the Freedom Forum Media Studies Center at Columbia University designated the college one of "Eleven Exemplary Journalism Schools" nationwide: those that surpass others in criteria including teaching, research, facilities and job placement.

College of Library and Information Services

The College of Library and Information Services offers degree programs for individuals interested in careers in information services and management. At the master's level, students may specialize in several fields, including archival studies, geographic information systems, health information services, school library media services, and science and technology information systems.

College of Life Sciences

The College of Life Sciences offers educational opportunities for students in subject matters relating to living organisms and their interaction with one another and with the environment. Programs of study include those involving the most fundamental concepts of biological science and chemistry and the use of knowledge in daily life, as well as the application of economic and engineering principles in planning the improvement of life.

School of Public Affairs

The School of Public Affairs provides graduate-level, professional education to men and women interested in careers in public service. Five disciplines are emphasized: finance, statistics, economics, politics, and ethics. Students specialize in international security and economic policy, public sector financial management, environmental policy, or social policy.

More, Better Students Want To Go To Maryland

The University of Maryland projects another record-breaking year for the quality of admitted students. The number of applications, GPAs and SAT scores all were up from the same time last year.

For the last 10 years, the quality of students being admitted to the University of Moryland has risen steadily. Average GPAs for incoming freshmen have risen from just under 3.0 to a projected 3.69, SAT scores of the middle 50 percent have gone from 980-1,150 to a projected 1,170-1,340, and the number of students with SAT scores above 1,300 has increased from 234 to a projected 1,155.

The University of Moryland has the state's largest concentration of academically talented students, with more than one-third of them enrolled in the invitation-only Honors, Honors Humanities, College Park Scholar or Gemstone programs.

Why There's No Better Place

There is no better place to be than the University of Maryland. As Washingtonian magazine noted in its December, 1997 issue, "...kids are turning down schools like Princeton and Virginia to go to College Park." With its top-ranked academic programs, nationally recognized faculty, diverse population and lush 1,580-acre compus located between Washington, D.C., and Baltimore, Md., it's no wonder the University of Maryland is a sought-after destination for some of the state's – and the country's – best and brightest students.

Attracting them are more than 100 majors and some of the highest ranked programs in the country. For instance, in the latest U.S. News & World Report rankings, University of Maryland ranked 22nd among national public universities. Among graduate schools, the Clark School of Engineering tied for 17th nationally; the Robert H. Smith School of Business graduate program ranked 26th; the computer science Ph.D program in the College of Computer, Mathematical and Physical Sciences ranked 11th; the College of Education ranked 22nd; and the College of Library and Information Services ranked 14th. The College of Business also has been named one of the country's top business schools for entrepreneurs by Success magazine.

For exceptional students seeking an exceptional education at the University of Maryland, College Park, there are a number of programs designed to enrich the learning experience. Among them are the Honors Program, ranked among the nine best in the country by ARCO's Guide to Ivy League Programs at State School Prices; College Park Scholars, which encourages students who share common intellectual interests to live and study together in 10 specialty areas; and the Gemstone Program, which links student teams from engineering, the humanities, business and the physical sciences in a four-year research project.

Supporting the research needs of students and faculty are some of the country's best research facilities. In 1994, the largest, most technically advanced research archives in the world – National Archives II – moved to College Park. In addition, just outside of College Park are the Library of Congress, the Smithsonian Institution and the National Libraries of Agriculture and Medicine, among others. The university itself has the most comprehensive library system in the area.

High tech, engineering and service industries thrive in proximity to the campus, offering a wide spectrum of internship and work-study opportunities that only a major metropolitan area can provide. The Kennedy Center alone houses the National Symphony Orchestra, five performance stages, an opera company, and the American Film Institute. In Baltimore, one of the great ports of the world, the Inner Harbor has become a cultural magnet for thousands of tourists each year, offering the National Aquarium, the Maryland Science Center, and other attractions.

Whether your focus is the sciences or the humanities, a small town atmosphere or a metropoliton feel, the University of Maryland, College Park offers a wide range of educational and cultural opportunities. There is no better place to be than the University of Maryland, College Park.

President C.D. Mote, Jr.

C.D. (Dan) Mote Jr. took office as president in September 1998 with a clear vision for taking the University of Maryland down the home stretch to its destiny as one of America's great research universities.

Mote came to Maryland from the University of California at Berkeley, where he had earned all of his degrees, and where he had served in faculty and administration more than 30 years. He had most recently been vice chancellor for university relations.

In Maryland, he found a university already well on its way to achieving the greatness envisioned when the General Assembly declared it the flagship institution of the University System of Maryland. Mote immediately took a leadership role on the Governor's Task Force on Governance, Coordination and Funding of the University System of Maryland to gain greater autonomy and flexibility for the university to pursue its goals. He followed that by working closely with state leaders to boost university funding for new programs, scholarships and faculty, gaining a 10 percent appropriations increase in his first year and matching that level of increase again in his second year.

Mote spelled out in his inauguration address his vision of Maryland as a great research university, where teaching and research are "inseparable." In this plan, the faculty creates a culture of excellence that permeates the university, student success is the center of all activity, and the extended Maryland family of alumni and friends grows rich in pride and tradition.

Mote observed that "a decade ago, we dreamed the impossible – the great research university. Then we sought the improbable – the great research university. Soon we will grasp the inevitable – the great research university."

High achievement has been Dan Mote's life, from his student days at the University of California at Berkeley, through his years as an outstanding teacher and world-renowned researcher and his leadership of a highly successful capital campaign at Berkeley. He arrived in College Park determined to continue the same level of achievement in his new post.

After earning his doctorate in engineering mechanics from Berkeley in 1963, Mote spent a year as a research fellow at the University of Birmingham in England, then three years as assistant professor of mechanical engineering at the Carnegie Institute of Technology in Pittsburgh before returning to Berkeley in 1967.

There he stayed for more than 30 years before coming to Maryland. He was promoted to professor in 1973.

Mote served two terms as vice chair of mechanical engineering and served as chair from 1987 to 1991. At that time, he was appointed to the endowed FANUC Chair in mechanical systems, in addition to being named vice chancellor for university relations, the post he held until accepting the presidency at Maryland in 1998.

Mote has participated with distinction in every phase of the academic enterprise, including classroom teaching, working with students, basic research, applied research and service to the university and the community.

Much respected by his students, Mote earned the 1971 Distinguished Teaching Award and the 1975 Pi Tau Sigma Excellence in Teaching Award for the University of California. He has supervised the research of more than 50 doctoral students, including several who are still in progress, and more than 60 master's theses. He has continued teaching and supervising graduate students even during his administrative assignments, and several of his graduate students from Berkeley commute to Maryland to meet with him as they finish their dissertations. Mote has stated his intention to teach and work with graduate students at Maryland as well.

Mote's research activities have focused on dynamic systems, instrumentation, vibration and biomechanics. He has achieved international recognition for his work on the stability of gyroscopic systems, including high-speed translating and rotating systems such as circular and band saws, computer memory disks and tapes. He also has researched the biomechanics of skiing injuries and the development of safer ski bindings. His research has resulted in more than 300 scholarly publications as well as patents in the United States, Norway, Finland and Sweden.

A registered professional engineer in California, Mote has served in numerous capacities for professional societies, including the National Academy of Engineering (NAE), the American Society of Mechanical Engineers (ASME) and the American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), and is co-editor of its biannual research series, "Skiing Trauma and Safety."

Mote's work has been supported continuously since 1962 by the National Science Foundation, and he also has received research fellowships from the Royal Norwegian Council for Scientific and Industrial Research. The American Society of Mechanical Engineers International elected him to honorary membership in 1975, and he has been elected as well to fellow grade in the International Academy of Wood Science, the Acoustical Society of America and the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

He was elected to the prestigious National Academy of Engineering in 1988, and in that same year was awarded the Humboldt Prize by the Federal Republic of Germany. In 1991, the Japan Society for the Promotion of Science awarded him a fellowship.

In 1992, he conceived, designed and implemented a $1.1 billion comprehensive capital campaign, which has exceeded $1 billion to date.

By the end of Mote's second year at Maryland, the university's ongoing capital campaign, Bold Vision • Bright Future, had raised nearly $300 million of a $350 million goal, including such landmark donations as Clarice Smith's $15 million for the Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center and Comcast Corporation's $20 million for the Comcast Center.

But Mote has said repeatedly that development and capital campaigns are not principally about raising money.

"They are about the university building relationships, with its alumni and friends of the university through the quality people and quality programs on campus. If we succeed in building authentic relationships, fund-raising happens as easily as the women's lacrosse team scores a goal."

Mote and his wife Patsy live in the President's Residence on the College Park campus. They have two grown children and four grandchildren.

Athletic Director Deborah A. Yow

Dr. Deborah A. Yow is in the seventh year of her outstanding tenure as director of athletics at the University of Maryland ... a year in which she also has assumed the presidency of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics, an organization with a membership of more than 6,100 athletic administrators representing 1,600 colleges and universities in North America and Mexico.

The comprehensive success of Terrapin athletics under Debbie Yow's leadership is a clear and compelling testimony to her values of excellence, teamwork and accountability. Likewise, her election to the presidency of NACDA is an indication of the respect with which Dr. Yow is regarded in intercollegiate athletics and education in the U.S. and Canada.

In October 2000, Yow was named Female Sports Executive of the Year by the editors of Street & Smith's Sports Business Journal.

Also as a member of the NCAA Management Council and NCAA Division I Budget Committee, Yow presents a strong voice for excellence and integrity at the highest levels of intercollegiate athletics. In these national roles she has represented the University of Maryland and the Atlantic Coast Conference with a balanced and proactive voice.

Since taking over at Maryland in 1994, she and her staff have:

- Transformed Terrapin athletics into a responsive, goal-oriented organization.
- Balanced all six of the nearly $30 million annual budgets (the first balanced budgets for the Terrapins in 10 years prior to her arrival).
- Greatly enhanced the academic support services provided to student-athletes, with an enviable exhausted eligibility graduation rate of nearly 90 percent during her tenure.
- Led the Terrapins to a national all-sports ranking in the upper 15 percent of all NCAA Division I institutions.
- Reorganized and upgraded marketing and fund-raising efforts on behalf of Terrapin athletics. As a result, private gifts to athletics have increased 135% and corporate sponsorship revenues have increased by 270% during her tenure at Maryland.
- Implemented a strategic management model.
- Paid off approximately $7 million in operating debt accrued before her arrival in 1994.
- Developed a comprehensive Internet strategy with management, marketing and fundraising applications.
- Significantly improved customer care in every area.

MARYLAND ATHLETIC DIRECTOR DEBORAH A. YOW TOOK OVER AS PRESIDENT OF THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF COLLEGIATE DIRECTORS OF ATHLETICS IN JULY 2000.

The Maryland Department of Athletics has made remarkable progress under Yow's leadership. Regarding the many achievements of Terrapin athletics over the past six years, Dr. Yow says, "We are pleased, but we are not satisfied ... our vision is to be one of the top 10 programs in the nation consistently ... we see no reason to settle for less."

Yow is known for her goal-oriented and proactive management style. She consistently inspires and challenges those around her to "raise our sights and sharpen our tools ... to work hard and work smart ... to recognize that our only limitations are those that we place upon ourselves." As a manager and leader, she clearly models these principles. She was recently singled out by Street & Smith's Sports Business Journal as one of the leading athletic administrators in the U.S.

A former basketball coach, she began her coaching career at the high school level in North Carolina before taking over as head women's coach at the University of Kentucky in 1976. She also achieved an outstanding coaching record as head coach at the University of Florida. She later moved into athletic administration at the University of Florida and the University of North Carolina-Greensboro, followed by a highly successful tenure as A.D. at Saint Louis University.

She has authored numerous articles and books on athletics, management and human behavior, and is a respected leader in intercollegiate athletics in the United States.

Reflecting on the status of the Terrapin men's basketball program, Maryland's director of athletics points out, "Our men's basketball program has been a key element in our emergence as a nationally prominent athletics program. Coach Gary Williams, his staff and team have risen to an elite level with our seven consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament, currently one of only nine institutions nationally to have achieved this record. Under Coach Williams' guidance, the Terrapins have become one of America's elite basketball programs."

Summing up the entire Terrapin athletic program, Yow recently observed, "We have the finest student-athletes, coaches, support staff and administrative team in America. It is because of their courage, hard work and cooperative spirit that we now have a strong, viable athletic program. I am immensely proud of each of them. I am equally proud of our Terrapin fans who buy tickets and our Terrapin Club members who faithfully support the Maryland athletic program with their donations for scholarships, and the Maryland Educational Foundation and M Club members who serve and give liberally. We have a great Terrapin family. That's the foundation for all of our successes ... and the basis for our bright future.

Assistant A.D./ Operations & Facilities

Curt Callahan, a veteran member of the Terrapins' athletic staff, is in his 12th year overseeing Maryland's athletic operations and facilities and his 22nd as an assistant wrestling coach. He was named the department's facilities coordinator in 1989 and was elevated to assistant athletic director in 1997.

As the key contact person on operations and facilities, Callahan manages the department's vast athletic complex, including Byrd Stadium and Cole Field House. In recent years, he played an instrumental role in three major building projects: the upper deck addition to Byrd Stadium, the construction of the Gossett Football Team House, and the completion of the James H. Kehoe Track and Field Facility and Ludwig Field. His game management responsibilities have included overseeing numerous NCAA lacrosse tournaments held in College Park.

His tenure at the university dates to his undergraduate days as a wrestler in the late 1960s, when he played an integral role in the Terps winning four consecutive ACC wrestling championships. Callahan was a two-time conference champion, winning individual titles in 1969 and '70. He was 22-1 as a junior, his only loss coming to NCAA and eventual Olympic champion Dan Gable of Iowa.

Callahan was a two-time qualifier to the U.S. Olympic Trials and final elimination comp. In both 1972 and '76, he finished fourth nationally in Greco-Roman at 149.5 pounds.

His wife's name is Sandy.

She has also overseen major hardware and software advancements in the ticket office.

Brown, who has been in collegiate athletics since 1989, joined the University of Maryland staff in August 1997 after serving the previous two years as associate ticket manager at Miami (Fla.). From 1993-95, she was ticket manager and event supervisor at the University of the Pacific in Stockton, Calif. Academic Support & Career Development

The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is committed to the academic success and career development of student athletes. In support of this commitment the department sponsors the Academic Support and Career Development Unit (ASCDU).

Mission

The mission of the unit is (1) to provide quality developmental programs and need based services that will enhance the opportunity to earn an undergraduate degree, (2) offer career development opportunities and (3) support the psychosocial growth of student athletes through special initiatives.

Staff

Nine full-time professionals, two graduate assistants, tutorial support staff and student associates comprise the unit's workforce.

ASCDU & The University

Primary academic advising is provided by professional advisors assigned to each student athlete by his or her home college, school or department. The ASCDU counselors serve as an important support network that coordinates and implements transitional and developmental programs to address the academic and career development needs of student athletes. In cooperation with the Office of Records and Registration, ASCDU monitors academic progress of student athletes to assure that NCAA, ACC, and University rules and regulations are met.

Location

The primary ASCDU unit is conveniently located on the ground floor of Cole Field House where student athletes have access to various resources and services. Each academic counselor has private office space in order to insure meeting privacy. A study table room is staffed by proctors and arranged to maximize student focus and concentration. The facility also houses a tutorial room devoted to servicing the learning needs of student athletes. The staff maintains two computer resource laboratories with a total of 40 personal computers containing up-to-date software packages. In addition, ASCDU coordinates a laptop computer service that provides each team access to laptop computers while traveling to away competitions.

There is also a satellite computer room in the Gossett Football Team House. Three of the nine ASCDU professionals are currently housed in the building.

The Future

In the summer of 2002, the $124 million Comcast Center will become the new home of the ASCDU unit. A 7,000 square foot wing has been developed to replace the current space in Cole Field House. The new home of ASCDU will be conveniently located on the floor where offices of coaches for 20 sports will also be placed. The close proximity was designed to facilitate communication among ASCDU staff, coaches and student athletes. The satellite computer lab in the Gossett Football Team House will continue to operate. In addition, a building addition of an auditorium which will seat 140 is currently planned for the Gossett Football Team House. That space will be available for use by the entire athletic program, including ASCDU.

Men's basketball ASCDU director Anton Goff works with Lonny Baxter in the computer lab.

Academic courses, programs and services offered by ASCDU include the following:

- Prospective student-athlete orientation
- Academic counseling
- NCAA academic eligibility monitoring
- Academic enrichment and career development presentations and workshops
- Accredited tutorial support
- Mentor program
- EDCP 108-J (Career decision making and planning)

Sports Medicine

Medical Staff

The University of Maryland Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and the University of Maryland Medical Center's Sports Medicine program have joined forces to provide the best possible medical attention and care to all Terrapin student-athletes.

Orthopedic surgeon Leigh Ann Curl, M.D., serves as the head team physician. Dr. Curl is part of the growing University Sports Medicine program of the University of Maryland Medical Center, which also provides medical care for the Baltimore Ravens of the NFL, UMBC, Coppin State University and 14 high schools.

Says Deborah A. Yow, Maryland's director of athletics: "When we recruit student-athletes to play for Maryland, we owe them the best education, the best coaching and the best comprehensive health care. Dr. Curl is an excellent physician who understands college athletics. It is especially gratifying for us to partner with our medical center in the same fashion as other ACC institutions do with their medical schools."

Leigh Ann Curl, M.D.

Head Team Physician

Leigh Ann Curl, a former All-American basketball player at the University of Connecticut and a 1998 inductee into the GTE Academic All-America Hall of Fame, is in her fourth year as Maryland's head team physician. She is on faculty as an assistant professor of orthopedic surgery at the University of Maryland School of Medicine.

Dr. Curl received her medical degree from Johns Hopkins University, where she also served her internship and residency. She completed a fellowship in sports medicine and shoulder surgery at Hospital for Special Surgery at Cornell University Medical Center in New York City. During her fellowship, she worked as team physician for St. John's University, the New York Mets and the New York City public schools recreation program. She also has volunteered as a team physician with Johns Hopkins University, USA Basketball and USA Rugby.

Dr. Curl graduated summa cum laude from the University of Connecticut in 1985 and was her class valedictorian. She was a four-year starter on the women's basketball team, serving two years as team captain, and became the third women's basketball player in school history to score 1,000 points. She finished her career among the all-time leaders in points and rebounds at UConn. A two-time GTE Academic All-America, Curl also was a two-time Big East Conference Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

Strength and Conditioning

In the highly competitive world of collegiate basketball, the off-court preparation of the basketball athlete is a critical component in the on-court success of any Division I program. Kurtis Shultz, Maryland's strength and conditioning coach for men's basketball, believes strongly that a solid off-court training program can dramatically improve levels of performance, as well as significantly reduce the chance of injury. The benefit of performing structured strength and power training throughout the entire year has allowed the Terps to reach new levels in physical development and, in turn, has resulted in great success on the basketball court.

Shultz's philosophy consists of allowing the players to gain strength, speed and change of direction capabilities through drills that are basketball oriented. He believes that the team must be prepared to run and play the up-tempo style of basketball that is Gary Williams' trademark. Shultz trains the team so that it will be able to run Williams' style.

THE TERPS' BASKETBALL WEIGHT FACILITY IS FULLY-EQUIPPED AND A PERFECT SIZE FOR TEAM TRAINING, LOCATED JUST OUTSIDE THE MARYLAND LOCKER ROOM.

The members of the men's basketball team have the use of a fully-equipped weight training facility located adjacent to its locker room in Cole Field House. The conveniently located facility has a complete line of free weight equipment as well as a full line of Cybex selectorized machines. The strength staff utilizes this facility specifically during the season as basketball team members are personally trained after practice. Since the end of the 1998-99 season, the facility has been upgraded through the addition of new cardiovascular equipment and state-of-the-art lifting materials.

"Receiving a scholarship was, in itself, an honor; but more important, it allowed me to spend valuable time porticipating in internships that prepared me for my career, instead of working my way through school. That scholarship is still paying dividends, years after my time in College Park."

Building On A Winning Tradition

As the Terps prepare to compete in the 21st century, Maryland athletics must ensure that its program is able to remain competitive by recruiting high caliber players and maintaining and attracting loyal fans. To do so, as part of Bold Vision • Bright Future: The Campaign for the University of Maryland, the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics has entered into a historic effort to increase private financial support for the construction and renovation of athletic facilities.

Cheryl Harrison
Director, Development for Major Gifts

At the center of the plan for our future is a new, state-of-the-art arena and home for Maryland Athletics, the Comcast Center. The Building Partners Campaign is the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics' effort to raise $20 million in outright gifts toward the construction of the Comcast Center. Quality facilities attract outstanding student-athletes, great crowds and a tremendous amount of energy and excitement. The competition site for men's and women's basketball, wrestling, volleyball and gymnastics, Comcast Center will be the centerpiece of intercollegiate athletics at the University of Maryland. The venue will be the best in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

By participating in the Building Partners Campaign, athletic benefactors have a chance to make a historic impact on the future of the University of Maryland and its athletics program. The Building Partners Campaign offers donors a unique opportunity to permanently link their names to the tradition of Terrapin athletics. Donors who make contributions of $25,000 to $1 million or more are entitled to permanent seat assignments in Comcast Center, in recognition of the substantial investment they have made in Maryland Athletics with their Building Partner Campaign contributions.

Maryland Educational Foundation 'Endowments for the Future'

The primary mission of the Maryland Educational Foundation (MEF) is to provide scholarship endowment funds in support of the athletic department's annual athletic scholarship expenses. By supporting talented, deserving student-athletes, donors ensure that our legacy of excellence will continue and grow. For more than 50 years, the MEF has provided financial support for Maryland athletics and is an important part of the department's gift-giving program. The vision of the MEF is to raise enough dollars through private gifts to build an endowment capable of permanently funding many of the university's scholarships now being awarded.

Dick Corrigan
Director, Major Gifts

What is an endowment? An endowment is a gift in which the principal is held in perpetuity, with only the income used (in part or whole) for scholarships. The MEF invites you to discuss gifts such as cash, securities, real estate, insurance, personal property, life income, gifts of pooled income funds, charitable remainder trusts, charitable gift annuities, wills and bequests. An endowment gift is truly a significant investment in the future of Maryland athletics. Contact Dick Corrigan or Cheryl Harrison at 301-314-7020 if you would like more information.

Cole Field House

Over the years, Cole Field House has played a substantial role in college basketball history. Twice the Final Four has been held there, and twice it has been a site for the opening two rounds of the NCAA basketball tournament. Cole is the only on-campus arena to play host to multiple Final Fours. Over the years, as the Atlantic Coast Conference has grown in stature as the preeminent college basketball conference in the country, Cole has seen its share of memorable games and storied players.

As the state's flagship university and an important part of the Baltimore-Washington area's sports landscape, it has also served as the site for the state boys' basketball tournament, and housed one of the biggest high school games played in these parts, when DeMatha from nearby Hyattsville played host to New York's Power Memorial and Lew Alcindor, now Kareem Abdul-Jabbar.

In focusing on Cole's past, the temptation is to overlook the present. Certainly, a lot of great games and great teams have performed there through the years. On any given weeknight or weekend afternoon during the cold of the winter, the Terrapins and their spirited fans get the place rocking, and there's no better place for college basketball.

And few arenas have proven quite so dangerous – for opposing teams, that is. Since back in the early '70s, when Lefty Driesell got the "Amen" chorus going, top-ranked teams have found Cole Field House a particularly unfriendly place. Driesell served notice that Maryland would prove an ungracious host during his tenure with an upset of then-No. 1 South Carolina in his second season in College Park. In 1979, the Terps came from behind in the final seconds to knock off top-ranked Notre Dame on national television in another memorable upset. This list goes on and on. UCLA in 1982, Virginia in '83, and Carolina in '95 and again in 1998. All were No. 1 when they arrived at Cole, but were knocked off by the Terrapins and the homecourt advantage the building and the fans afforded them.

Though some of those victories might have been surprises, you could hardly call them flukes. The Terps have posted winning records in 39 of the 45 seasons they've played at Cole, and fans with season tickets have seen the Terps lose more than they've won in College Park only once since the 1969-70 season. Of course, most of those years, the Terps have done far better than just break even in College Park. Under head coach Gary Williams, a Maryland grad who played at Cole as an undergraduate in the late 1960s, the Terps have won at least 10 games at home 10 times in his 11 seasons. Thanks to the heroics of All-America center Joe Smith, the Terps went undefeated at home (16-0) during the 1994-95 season, the third time in history that had happened.

Overall, Maryland is 459-148 at Cole, including a 15-1 record at home last season. In the past two years, Maryland has gone 28-2 in Cole.

Appropriately, the Terps opened their 1955-56 season with a victory over neighboring rival Virginia in the building's dedication game. A crowd of some 9,000 came out to see what kind of field house could be built with $3.3 million in those days. In the building's early years, capacity was only about 12,000, because there were no seats on the floor, below where the railings ring the court.

Nowadays, capacity is listed as 14,500, although that doesn't include the 96 courtside seats installed before the 1993-94 season. The largest recorded crowd (15,827) was on hand for the Maryland-North Carolina overtime thriller in 1972. But more than that may have witnessed the Virginia game in March of 1974, which marked the final home game for distinguished seniors Tom McMillen and Len Elmore. Every seat in the place was filled, and thousands more lined the concourse a couple of rows deep or simply sat in the aisles to witness the grand send-off. The fire marshal must have been on vacation. Or maybe he was there at the game.

In the building's four decades, though, the 1966 NCAA championship game, which pitted Kentucky against underdog Texas Western (now Texas El Paso), is probably the most famous. And, the most historically significant. In that game, the upstart Texas team, which featured an all-black starting five, knocked off all-white Kentucky, the New York Yankees of college basketball. The result forced the southern colleges to recruit and sign black players, lest they lose their competitive advantage, and did away with segregation in the sport.

Cole also hosted the 1970 Final Four, which saw UCLA crowned as champion for the fourth year in a row in what would turn out to be a run of seven straight national titles.

Great high school and professional games have been played on the Maryland campus as well. Back in 1965, Morgan Wootten was gaining national attention for his winning program at DeMatha High School, just down Route 1 from campus. To be the best, Wootten always said, you had to beat the best, which is why he scheduled a game against Power Memorial of New York City, which featured Alcindor. After practicing in the week leading up to the game against a defender holding a tennis racquet to approximate Alcindor's wingspan, DeMatha stunned Power with a 46-43 victory. It was the only loss of the future Hall of Famer's high school career.

For a time, Cole served as the site for the Capital Classic high school all-star basketball game each spring, and the Capitol Bullets, who later became the Washington Wizards, played their NBA games at Cole while waiting for the completion of the Capital Centre back in the early 1970s.

In its time, Cole Field House has been much more than just another on-campus college basketball arena. If you don't believe that, just ask any Terrapin fan or player. But they'd probably all agree that it's the role the building has played best.

History Of Cole Field House

1955 Cole Field House dedicated at a cost of $3.3 million. Maryland defeats Virginia, 67-55, on Dec. 2 in the first game in the new facility.

1958 Cole is home to the Atlantic Coast Conference champions.

1966 Cole plays host to the NCAA Final Four. In the semifinals, Kentucky defeats Duke and Texas Western (now Texas-El Paso) defeats Utah. Texas-El Paso then defeats Kentucky in one of the most memorable championship games in history.

1970 Cole plays host to the NCAA Final Four for the second time. Jacksonville defeats St. Bonaventure and UCLA defeats New Mexico State in the semifinals. UCLA then defeats Jacksonville as Sidney Wicks outdueled Artis Gilmore. It was the fourth of UCLA's seven consecutive NCAA championships.

1971 Maryland defeats No. 1 South Carolina, 31-30, in one of the great "slow-down" games in the history of Cole. Leading only 4-3 at halftime, Maryland needed a lay-up from Jim O'Brien to tie the game with five seconds to go in regulation and an 11-foot jumper from O'Brien to win the game with four seconds remaining in overtime.

1972 Cole is home to the National Invitation Tournament champions - the Maryland Terrapins.

1972 The Cole Field House attendance record of 15,287 was set as Maryland played host to North Carolina on Feb. 16. Maryland lost 79-77 in an overtime thriller. Maryland averaged 13,166 fans at each home game in 1972, then, the third highest total in school history.

1975 The Cole Field House home average attendance record of 13,427 is set. The Terps played 14 home games in front of 187, 971 Terp faithful.

1979 On Super Bowl Sunday, Larry Gibson sank a free throw with one second on the clock to boost the Terps past No. 1 Notre Dame, 67-66, on Jan. 27, 1979. Gibson scored 11 points that day while Ernest Graham scared 28 and Buck Williams grabbed 15 rebounds.

1979 Greg Manning sinks an eight-foot jumper with three seconds remaining in regulation to give Maryland a 70-68 victory over Duke on Jan. 16, 1979. The Blue Devils had entered the season ranked No. 1 in the country and were ranked among the top 10 on the day of the game.

The awards presentation following the 1966 championship game when Texas Western defeated Kentucky in a historic game.

A look at Cole when it first opened in 1955.

1984 Cole is home to the Atlantic Coast Conference champion Maryland Terrapins.

1991 In the NCAA Eastern Regional first round, No. 15 Richmond defeats No. 2 Syracuse, 73-69, in one of the great upsets in NCAA Tournament history. It was only the second time in the history of the tournament that a No. 15 seed had defeated a No. 2 seed.

1992 Maryland defeats No. 10 North Carolina, 82-80, on a last-second tip-in by All-American Walt Williams on Feb. 13. Williams put the Terps up 81-80 with 1.3 seconds remaining to lead the Terps past the Tar Heels in Cole for only the second time since the 1982-83 season.

1994 Maryland sets an all-time average attendance record of 13,644 for 13 games.

1994 Maryland defeats Virginia on March 5, 70-68, in front of a sellout crowd. Duane Simpkins is perfect from the free-throw line (11-11) and Joe Smith scores 20 points and has 11 rebounds. The win clinches a fourth-place tie in the ACC regular season standings and virtually assures the Terps of an NCAA Tournament bid.

1995 Maryland defeats No. 1 North Carolina, 86-73, on Feb. 7, in front of a sellout crowd and a national television audience. Duane Simpkins and Johnny Rhodes score 21 points each and Joe Smith grabs 16 rebounds. The game features the Terps' Smith and North Carolina's Jerry Stackhouse and Rasheed Wallace, all three of whom were selected in the first round of the 1995 NBA Draft.

1995 Maryland defeats American, 104-79, on Dec. 23, for the 400th victory in Cole Field House by a Maryland team.

1998 Maryland defeats No. 1 North Carolina, 89-83 in overtime, as Laron Profit scores 19 points overall and six points during the overtime period. It marks the second time in three years that the Terps defeated No. 1 North Carolina in Cole Field House.

Terps On The Air

All of Maryland's games this season – home and away – will be heard live on the Maryland Radio Network. The Terps will be heard on flagship stations WBAL (1090-AM) and WMAL (630-AM), which combine to give Maryland one of the strongest broadcast signals of any collegiate basketball team in the nation. The Terps can be heard from Maine to Florida.

Johnny Holliday will once again serve as the voice of the Terps. He will be joined by color analyst Chris Knoche.

All of Maryland's games can be heard via www.umterps.com and www.espn.com.

Johnny Holliday – Play-by-Play

Johnny Holliday, who is in his third decade as the Terps' play-by-play announcer, has broadcast more than 580 Maryland basketball games, 28 NCAA Tournament games and will call his 21st ACC Tournament this season.

Holliday, now in his 22nd year as the "Voice of the Terps," is considered one of the finest play-by-play announcers in the nation. In addition to calling the action for the Maryland basketball and football teams, Holliday also hosts the award-winning Gary Williams and Ron Vanderlinden television shows. As the Terps' director of broadcasting, he handles a myriad of speaking duties within the athletic department, ranging from banquets, to Terrapin Club and M Club functions and golf outings.

His long list of credits includes ABC's coverage of every Olympics since 1984. In addition, he has covered championship boxing, the Masters and the Liberty and Aloha bowls.

Holliday's announcing career allows him to lay claim as Washington's most versatile broadcaster, and among the best nationally. Whether it be in radio, where he was named America's No. 1 disc jockey during his rock 'n roll deejay days, to his public address duties with the Cleveland Browns, Oakland Raiders, and Golden State Warriors, to his work in Washington television for the Senators and Bullets, Holliday makes a complicated business look easy.

He brings that ease to the Maryland coach's television shows on Home Team Sports, the region's premier sports channel. He also does special events for HTS that include baseball, tennis, basketball and track and field. He is among the pioneer broadcasters for the sport of women's basketball, earning a Distinguished Service Award from ACC women's basketball officials for his work on that league's women's basketball telecasts.

A native of Miami, Fla., Holliday began his broadcasting career in Perry, Ga., and through the years has worked in four of the nation's prime radio markets: Cleveland, New York, San Francisco and Washington. At one time, he was recognized as America's No. 1 disc jockey. He is a member of the Rock 'N Roll Hall of Fame.

In addition to his broadcasting accomplishments, he also has been extremely successful raising money for charity. Washingtonian magazine honored him as a Washingtonian of the Year for his many civic activities. His basketball and softball teams, the Radio Wonders, have raised more than $1 million for charity. He is involved in Special Olympics, Catholic Charities, Operation Smile, and the Boy Scouts of America. He has served as television host for the Easter Seals, Muscular Dystrophy, March of Dimes and Leukemia telethons.

Three years ago he was honored by the Greater Washington, D.C. Chapter of Operation Smile with its 1998 Smile Award for his outstanding service to the community. In 1995, he was the recipient of the University of Maryland "M Club" Distinguished Citizen Award. He is an honorary member of the university's chapter of Omicron Delta Kappa.

Holliday and his wife, Mary Claire, are the proud parents of three daughters: Kellie, a physician who resides in Bel Air, Md., with her husband Steve, who also is a physician; Tracie, a neo-natal nurse at Shady Grove Hospital who resides in Potomac, Md.; with her husband Chris, an attorney; and Moira, who attends St. Joseph's University in Philadelphia.

Chris Knoche – Color Analyst

Chris Knoche, a former player and head coach at American University who has worked in radio and television for the past three years, is in his second season as the color analyst for the Terp men's basketball radio broadcasts.

Knoche spent 17 seasons at American, playing the 1979-80 and '80-81 seasons under current Terp coach Gary Williams before moving into an assistant coaching position and later serving seven seasons (1991-97) as the Eagles' head coach.

Prior to joining Maryland's broadcast crew, he worked 40-50 games each of the previous two seasons as a color commentator, including stints on the Ivy League Game of the Week television package and the Big Ten Game of the Week on Westwood One/CBS Radio. He also has worked telecasts for ESPN and HTS in addition to doing radio and television analysis for George Mason University games.

"Chris Knoche brings an outstanding background as a player, coach and fan to our basketball broadcasts," said Williams, the Terps' 12th-year head coach. "Being able to work with Johnny Holliday, Chris provides the opportunity for Maryland fans to listen to someone who has very good experience as a color commentator. More important, he is someone who has a great feel for the game of basketball. I have known Chris as a player and a coach for more than 20 years. He is an exciting addition to our basketball program."

Welcome To Maryland

Maryland basketball is one of the top overall programs in the nation. Head coach Gary Williams, his staff and players welcome you to College Park and hope that your stay is enjoyable. Cole Field House is one of the top places in the nation to watch a college basketball game and the program would like to thank you for stopping here while on your "Road to the Final Four." The media relations staff is always available to service you and has prepared this media guide as a source of information which can be referred to all season. Welcome to Maryland. We hope that you enjoy your visit and that we will see you along the college basketball road again.

Before Your Visit

Game credentials are issued to accredited members of the media only. Working space in the press area of Cole is limited and seats are expressly reserved for those working on deadline, with no exceptions. Children and other non-workers are not allowed in the press area. Credentials should be ordered at least one week before each game and are issued through the Media Relations Office. Requests for credentials should be made in writing and on letterhead stationery to Dave Haglund or Kevin Messenger in the Media Relations office. If it is convenient for you to FAX your request, you are welcome to do so. The FAX number in the Media Relations Office is (301) 314-9094. These requests are accepted from Sports Editors and Sports Directors only. The credential requests should be sent so that they reach the Media Relations Office at least one week prior to the desired games. They are carefully screened to insure good working conditions in the press area. When time permits, a working press pass and a parking pass will be mailed. When this is not possible, they will be left at the Press Will Call entrance at the back door of Cole. The back door of Cole directly faces Byrd Stadium.

Photographers, too, should make their credential requests at least one week in advance. Credential requests for photography passes are welcome. Photographers should note that the Cole Field House lights are color balanced for daylight. An exposure setting of 250 at f2.8 has been found to work well with ASA 400 film and normal processing. Strobe lights may be installed in Cole, but arrangements must be made though the Media Relations Office two weeks in advance. Space for strobe lights is available on a first come, first served basis.

Game Day Press Parking is located on the 8yrd Stadium promenade, under the Tyser Tower press box. The promenade is best accessed from the Stadium Drive entrance to campus. Access is via press parking pass only and is available on an extremely limited basis.

Media Work Room

A press work room is available for working media only on the court level of Cole. The media workroom is located just off of the basketball court to your left. A limited number of long distance phone lines are available on a first-come, first serve basis and require a credit card for billing.

The room opens well before game time and media representatives are welcome to make themselves comfortable. Food service is available to the media in the press room as a pre-game meal is served buffet style. A halftime and post-game beverage service is also available. The pre-game buffet is available one hour before tip-off.

Fax Machine Service

Fax machine service will be available. If you need any information faxed to your newspaper, please submit your request to a member of the Media Relations Office.

Press Seating

Press seating is located on the basketball floor in the northwest corner of the arena. The area is manned by members of the Media Relations Office throughout the game. The Media Relations staff desires to help the media be as comfortable as possible during each game.

Photographers

The NCAA has established a policy to control congestion in the photography areas on the basketball court. Only photographers on assignment, along with members of working television media are given photo passes. Admission to the court and the photo boxes is by photo pass only. Photographers, both still and electronic, must shoot from the baselines at the northwest (Maryland bench end/directly in front of press seating) and southeast (visiting bench) corners of the court. Photographer's floor access is governed by Atlantic Coast Conference policy. Please note that only game photographers (no runners, assistants or producers) will have access to the photography areas. Photographers are also welcome to shoot from the photo deck on the west side of Cole. Access to the photo deck is from the concourse level opposite the team benches. Photographer positions are at the complete discretion of the basketball game officials and the Media Relations Office AT ALL TIMES. Failure to comply with their directions will result in expulsion from the arena.

In-Season Interview Policies

All Maryland players and head coach Gary Williams will be available for interviews with accredited members of the media throughout the season. ALL INTERVIEW REQUESTS must be made through the Media Relations Office, contacting Kevin Messenger. Please give a minimum of 24 hours notice. Player's individual phone numbers will not be given to the media and game day interviews will not be granted until the end of a game.

The Media Relations Office is located on the main level of Cole Field House in room 1112. The phone number is (301) 314-7064 and the FAX number is (301) 314-9094.

Players will not be available for live call-in radio shows.

Postgame Press Conference

Postgame interviews with Maryland coach Gary Williams are held in the basketball lounge adjacent to the media work room and the Maryland lockerroom. Coaches from opposing teams will be brought to the entrance to the women's basketball locker room, also located off the tunnel after each game. The Maryland locker room is open to credentialed media for a brief period after Coach Williams concludes his comments to the media. This is in accordance with ACC rules. The visiting team's locker room access policy is determined by officials of that school.

Postgame Statistics

Statistics packets, including running play-by-play, first half and final boxscores and post-game notes and quotes, are compiled following every game and made available to the media at press row and in the press room.

E-Mail Services

Basketball releases can be obtained electronically by contacting Kevin Messenger at kmess@wam.umd.edu. List TERP NEWS in the subject heading, and include the name of your media outlet and phone number in your message. (This is a media service only).
